Tunbridge Ware:

Tunbridge Ware Margaret Anne Violet Gill,1985 For a little more than a century from the late 1820 s mosaic inlaid ware in natural coloured woods was produced at Tunbridge Wells and other centres in the south of England This mosaic ware is often regarded as Tunbridge ware per se though the wood turners of the district had been famed since the seventeenth century long before the invention of the technique As Tunbridge Wells developed into a fashionable spa with visitors expecting to purchase souvenirs local craftsmen adapted their wares to suit the taste of their customers Paradoxically the most revolutionary development in the industry came when the spa was in decline The book discusses the nature of early Tunbridge ware and illustrates the various later styles of decoration painted and printed wares marquetry stickwork half square mosaic and the familiar mosaic ware The many photographs are all from the permanent collection of the Tunbridge Wells Museum and Art Gallery which holds one of the most representative collections of Tunbridge ware in England The Connoisseur ,1928 The Builder ,1899 Jane Austen's Sanditon Arthur M. Axelrad,2010 When Jane Austen died in 1817 she left behind 120 pages of manuscript that would eventually be published as Sanditon Praised by some critics and condemned by others this final effort by the great English writer has for the most part been overlooked in favor of the novels that were published during her lifetime and shortly after her death For the first time an entire book is devoted to examining this fragment to establish it as Jane Austen s potential masterpiece With a new setting and a greater range of characters than found in earlier works this novel composed during the last months of her short life if completed would at the same time have continued her series of magnificent novels and created new possibilities for novels to come The Sketch ,1900 Every man his own mechanic Francis Chilton Young,1881 Proceedings Rochester Academy of Sciences,1906
