

What is formative feedback?

Formative feedback is feedback given to students during the learning process.

- give evidence of where the learner is up their (strengths) and areas for improvement to the individual learner often
- explain the activity and learning goal
- give students an idea of how the teacher can help improve towards that goal

Formative feedback should be given regularly and often by the teacher or peer and self

Formative feedback should be given at the appropriate time - activities should be given to the learners while they are still open to the feedback

Formative feedback should be given to support the learner's progress and to help them to improve their learning

How might formative feedback be delivered?

Formative feedback types to use:

When teachers:

- regularly give feedback to students during the learning process
- take the form of comments or praise

When the teacher is not present, formative feedback can be given to students through the use of peer and self-feedback

When feedback is given to the learner it should be given in a way that is helpful and encouraging to the learner and they should be given the opportunity to improve their work

When using formative feedback it is important to provide the feedback to the learner in a way that is helpful and encouraging to the learner

Formative feedback should be given to support the learner's progress and to help them to improve their learning

Steps For Guidance:

Steps for Guidance Peter Masters,1995-01-01 The subject of how to find God's guidance has become controversial Some say it comes by dreams visions and words of knowledge Others say that God does not have a specific plan for His people but allows them to take their own decisions as long as they do so in a wise and moral way By contrast with these ideas this book presents from Scripture the time honoured view that Christians must seek God's will in all the major decisions of life The author outlines six biblical steps for finding God's will giving special attention to key areas such as courtship and marriage possessions and leisure activities Under what circumstances may Christians seek advancement in career and wealth Does the Lord determine which church fellowship a believer should join When is it wrong to leave a church and when is it right Clear biblical answers are given
