Designing Transformative Multicultural Initiatives Sherry K. Watt,2023-07-03 Higher education is facing a perfect storm as it contends with changing demographics shrinking budgets and concerns about access and cost while underrepresented groups both in faculty ranks and students are voicing dissatisfaction with campus climate and demanding changes to structural inequities This book argues that to address the inexorable changes ahead colleges and universities need both to centralize the value of diversity and inclusion and employ a set of strategies that are enacted at all levels of their institutions It argues that individual and institutional change efforts can only be achieved by implementing diversity as a value that is embracing social change efforts as central and additive rather than episodic and required and provides the research and theoretical frameworks to support this approach as well as tools and examples of practice that accomplish change The contributors to this book identify the elements that drive successful multicultural initiatives and that strengthen the effectiveness of campus efforts to dismantle systemic oppression as well as the individual and organization skills needed to manage difference effectively Among these is developing the capacity of administrators faculty and student affairs professionals as conscious scholar practitioners to sensitively manage conflicts on campus deconstruct challenging structures and reconstruct the environment intentionally to include in respectful ways experiences of historically marginalized groups and non dominant ways of being in the world The books focus on developing capacities for multicultural competence aligns with higher education s increasing emphasis on civic engagement and institutional goals promote skills to interact in meaningful and responsible ways around difference whether of people ideas or identities Designing Transformative Multicultural Initiatives provides guiding principles and practical strategies to successfully transform higher education to become fully inclusive and advance the success of all constituents and stakeholders Multicultural Curriculum Transformation in Social Studies and Civic Education Kenneth J.

promotes reading straight through The volume is divided into three major sections the first of which highlights the actual process of faculty transformation and administrative support essential to curricular changes as it occurred on two of the participating campuses U C L A and George Washington University Extensive multidisciplinary faculty development syllabi are provided A A A Section Two contains 37 transformed undergraduate course syllabi for courses in sociology American history and literature and more with brief essays describing professors encounters with teaching the new texts Section Three is an invaluable interdisciplinary guide to teaching about Puerto Rican women prepared by a team of scholars at SUNY Albany It provided information about Puerto Rican women inside and outside Puerto Rico as well as teaching strategies for integrating such information into the traditional curriculum A A A This volume shows that essential educational change to meet the diversity of U S students may be somewhat slower than one would wish and more difficult but it is complex challenging and intellectually exciting
