Making the San Fernando Valley Laura R. Barraclough, 2011-01-01 In the first book length scholarly study of the San Fernando Valley home to one third of the population of Los Angeles Laura R Barraclough combines ambitious historical sweep with an on theground investigation of contemporary life in this iconic western suburb She is particularly intrigued by the Valley s many rural elements such as dirt roads tack and feed stores horse keeping districts citrus groves and movie ranches Far from natural or undeveloped spaces these rural characteristics are she shows the result of deliberate urbanplanning decisions that have shaped the Valley over the course of more than a hundred years The Valley s entwined history of urban development and rural preservation has real ramifications today for patterns of racial and class inequality and especially for the evolving meaning of whiteness Immersing herself in meetings of homeowners associations equestrian organizations and redistricting committees Barraclough uncovers the racial biases embedded in rhetoric about open space and western heritage The Valley s urban cowboys enjoy exclusive semirural landscapes alongside the opportunities afforded by one of the world s largest cities Despite this enviable position they have at their disposal powerful articulations of both white victimization and with little contradiction color blind politics Orange Coast Magazine ,1982-03 Orange Coast Magazine is the oldest continuously published lifestyle magazine in the region bringing together Orange County s most affluent coastal communities through smart fun and timely editorial content as well as compelling photographs and design Each issue features an award winning blend of celebrity and newsmaker profiles service journalism and authoritative articles on dining fashion home design and travel As Orange County s only paid subscription lifestyle magazine with circulation figures guaranteed by the Audit Bureau of Circulation Orange Coast is the definitive guidebook into the county s luxe lifestyle The Southern Lumberman ,1955 Day Hiker's Guide to Southern California John McKinney,1987 The Writings of Bret Harte Bret Harte,1896 A waif of the plains and other tales Bret Harte,1896 Santa Barbara County Popular Street Atlas Thomas Bros.
