Stand in the Gap Prayer Journal Bill McCartney, 2014-10-08 I once knew a football coach He was a driven man who had sacrificed much to climb the ladder of his profession This coach loved his job he was energized by competition inspired by success His focus was hard and narrow He traveled far and wide to charm a prized recruit spent most waking hours assessing his team evaluating last week s mistakes sweating over next week s game plan His mind was trained to detect the smallest chink in the enemy s armor to exploit any advantage Most days he was up and out of the house before anybody else was awake Many nights he came home long after everyone had gone to bed He was not however a one dimensional man He was also a devoted Christian unashamed of the gospel energized and outspoken about God He was quick to proclaim the name of Jesus Christ wherever he went He attended church and by all appearances seemed like the real deal a sincere believer on fire for Jesus Christ a humble servant of God If someone would have followed this coach from dawn to midnight he would have seen him praying over his office quarters every morning and heard him on his lunch time walk ask God s blessing over each staff member and player He would have beheld a man who talked a lot about God But in reality he would have discerned a man intoxicated with coaching left with no choice but to conclude Coach says he s excited about God but his actions tell me he s really excited about football He says he s excited about his marriage but he didn t even see his wife today I think he s really excited about football And finally Coaching takes so much of this man s time and energy Coaching not God comes first in his life And he would have been right By now you ve guessed the coach is me or was me While I wanted balance in my life there was imbalance I meant well I would share the gospel with anyone I would boldly preach Christ in public share my love for God And there is no doubt in the off season God got substantially more of my time But there was a contradiction in my daily walk with God My heart while it longed for deeper connection to God was sold out to my profession to competition to whatever it took to win football games I knew about winning football I needed to know more about loving the Lord your God with all of your heart and with your soul and with all your strength

And I sought for a man among them that should make up the hedge and stand in the gap before me for the land that I should not destroy it but I found none We often see fiery preachers quick to declare fire and brimstone upon the ungodly While it is true that God judges the wicked and the disobedient He is never in haste to pour out His wrath The ways of God are often mysterious and far beyond our comprehension The Almighty is not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance 2 Peter 3 9 Time and again God raises faithful men and women who would plead for His people those who would make up the hedge and stand in the gap before the Creator so that He might show mercy instead of judgment This book takes you through the lives and historical contexts of a few such men and women of God Abraham Moses Mordecai Esther and Daniel who stood in the gap for their people before the Lord and stayed His hand of judgment And finally we will behold our Lord Jesus Christ Himself the perfect Intercessor who stood between the fierce wrath of God and the entire human race May the Lord bless you as you read this book and may it inspire you to stand in the gap for your family your church and your generation The Advocate of Truth ,1996 Traits of Character Illustrated in Bible Light Henry F.
