TV Guide Almanac Craig T. Norback, Peter G. Norback, 1980      TV Guide's Television Almanac, 1995      TV Guide Almanac, 1980      TV Guide, 1999      Syndicated Television Hal Erickson, 2024-10-09 Here is an excellent reference book on first run syndication the distribution of programs either made exclusively for non network play or of programs intended for network telecasts but ultimately making their debuts in syndication Bringing together information not easily found this work covers the classics such as Sea Hunt Highway Patrol The Merv Griffin Show and the Muppet Show as well as such once popular but now obscure productions as China Smith Ripcord and The Littlest Hobo Coverage goes back to 1947 and the book includes a number of series ignored in other works The first section is an overview of the concept of syndication from its earliest application in the newspaper world to the attempt by Fox Television to become a fourth network The next four sections each cover ten years of syndication listing the shows with full background who produced them and why who liked them and why etc alphabetically by title under the following genres Adventure Mystery Children s Comedy Drama Game Quiz Informational Music Variety Religious Sports Talk Interview Travel Documentary Westerns and Women s      The Age of Television Martin Esslin, 2017-07-05 Having spent most of his career working with the British Broadcasting Corporation BBC Martin Esslin appraises American TV with the eyes of both a detached outsider and a concerned insider American popular culture writes Esslin has become the popular culture of the world at large American television is thus more than a purely social phenomenon It fascinates and in some instances frightens the whole world The Age of Television discusses television as an essentially dramatic form of communication pointing to the strengths and weaknesses that spring from its character It explores its impact on generations destined to grow up under its influence with such questions as how TV turns reality into fiction and fiction into reality Esslin considers the long term effects of television on our abilities to reason to read to create He asks if current programming on American television constitutes what we want and deserve and asks what we would change if we could These are but a handful of the questions Esslin probes in this penetrating analysis of contemporary television and its impact on our lives In his new introduction Esslin discusses changes in the media over the last two decades He explores the increasing number of television stations available the rise of boutique channels concentrating on news sports or film and the relationship between television and other forms of electronic media such as video games and the Internet Finally he considers the effect of these developments on our ability to concentrate our sensitivity to violence and even our artistic taste Most compelling of all is his final question Can the Age of Television with all its dangers yet become a golden age of cultural growth Martin Esslin is professor emeritus of drama at Stanford University His numerous critical works include Brecht The Man and his Work The Theatre of the Absurd An Anatomy of Drama and Artaud He cur      A Critical History of Television's The Red Skelton Show, 1951-1971 Wesley Hyatt, 2015-05-07 The Red Skelton Show was on the air for 20 years the longest running primetime network comedy variety series on television It was a top 10 series for nine years an accomplishment surpassed only by Gunsmoke and Home Improvement The series has a few unimpressive achievements too such as becoming the first top 10 series to be cancelled by a network Here is the history of The Red Skelton Show beginning with its debut in 1951 one of the top five that year The show then declined in popularity moved from CBS to NBC in 1953 slowly rose back to the top In its glory days of the 1960s it became an hour long show and finished at number two in two different years The cancellation of the show by CBS in 1970 despite its place in the top 10 was a surprise the last season back with NBC was a failure Appendices list cast and crew credits and special guests by season and offer information on the post Red Skelton lives of many of the principal players American Film Exhibition and an Analysis of the Motion Picture Industry's Market Structure 1963-1980 Gary Edgerton,2014-01-03 This study looks at how the movie industry organisation functioned between the late 40s and 1983 when it was originally published It describes the changing role of domestic exhibition through this time and analyses the wider film industry to provide a model of the exhibition structure in relation to production distribution and outside factors It addresses the growing issues of the cable and video markets as competition to the film exhibition business at that time and looks forward into a highly turbulent environment With particular interest now as the film industry address a new range of threats and adaptations of its working structure this book offers an integral understanding of a key stage in cinema history Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1973 How to Read a Film James Monaco,1981 Now thoroughly revised and updated the book discusses recent breakthroughs in media technology including such exciting advances as video discs and cassettes two way television satellites cable and much more Sightlines ,1979 Psychology ,1987 TV News Ethics Marilyn J. Matelski,1991 Helps professionals and students to understand the relationship between the ethics of news and the business of broadcasting It includes case studies to help illustrate principles and enable professionals to develop their ethical decision making abilities Changing Channels Peggy Charren,Martin W.
