Watching The Stars:

Watching Skies Mark O'Connell, 2018-05-30 Mark O'Connell didn't want to be Luke Skywalker. He wanted to be one of the mop-haired kids on the Star Wars toy commercials. And he would have done it had his parents had better pine furniture and a condo in California. Star Wars, Jaws, Close Encounters of the Third Kind, E.T., The Extra-Terrestrial, Raiders of the Lost Ark, and Superman didn't just change cinema; they made lasting highways into our childhoods, toy boxes, and video stores like never before. In Watching Skies, O'Connell pilots a gilded X-Wing flight through that shared universe of bedroom remakes of Return of the Jedi, close encounters with Christopher Reeve, sticker album swaps, the trauma of losing an entire Star Wars figure collection, and honeymooning on Amity Island. From the author of Catching Bullets: Memoirs of a Bond Fan, Watching Skies is a timely hologram from all our memory systems. It is about how George Lucas, Steven Spielberg, a shark, two motherships, some gremlins, Ghostbusters, and a man of steel jumper a whole generation to hyperspace. Seeing Stars C. R. Kitchin, Robert W. Forrest, 2012-12-06 Seeing Stars is written for astronomers regardless of the depth of their theoretical knowledge who are taking their first steps in observational astronomy. Chris Kitchin and Bob Forrest, both professional astronomers, take a conducted tour of the night sky and suggest suitable observing programmes for everyone from beginners to experts. How is this book different? We are all familiar with the beautiful images of planets and galaxies obtained by spacecraft and giant telescopes, but what can you really see with a small telescope? What should you expect from a small refractor or reflector? And what is the effect of observing from a site near a city? The answers are all here with many photographs that will illustrate exactly what can be seen with different instruments, everything from the naked eye to a 300mm telescope and from different locations. Science Spectrum 6' 2004 Ed., A Place to Read Michael Cohen, 2014 In this essay collection, Michael Cohen tells us about his surprise encounter with the remains of Frida Kahlo, about his father's murder, and about his son's close shave with death on the highway. His subjects can be as commonplace as golfing with close friends, amateur astronomy, birding, or learning to fly at the age of sixty. But he asks difficult questions about how we are grounded in space and time, how we are affected by our names, how a healthy person can turn into a hypochondriac, and how we might commune with the dead. And throughout, he measures, compares, and interprets his experiences through the lens of six decades of reading. The tools of the writer's trade fascinate him, as do eateries in his small college town, male dress habits, American roads, and roadside shrines. He lives on the Blood River in Kentucky when he is not in the Tucson Mountains. Unvoiced Words Taniya Nanwani, 2022-02-16 The book UNVOICED WORDS is based on the open theme where more than hundred writers from different corners of the world have placed their words with enlightening others and making them know the worth of themselves with their hidden words. It's compiled and edited by TANIYA NANWANI. This book will definitely empower you in ways more than you can imagine for we have worked well to bring and blend all emotions together very smoothly. Hope to get good reviews from the readers. The Observatory, 1883
