The Circulation of Astronomical Knowledge in the Ancient World, 2016-04-18 Astronomical and astrological knowledge circulated in many ways in the ancient world in the form of written texts and through oral communication by the conscious assimilation of sought after knowledge and the unconscious absorption of ideas to which scholars were exposed The Circulation of Astronomical Knowledge in the Ancient World explores the ways in which astronomical knowledge circulated between different communities of scholars over time and space and what was done with that knowledge when it was received Examples are discussed from Mesopotamia Egypt the Greco Roman world India and China A Glossary of Words and Phrases in the Oral Performing and Dramatic Literatures of the Jin, Yuan, and Ming Dale Johnson, 2020-08-06 For many years the oral performing and dramatic literatures of China from 1200 to 1600 CE were considered some of the most difficult texts in the Chinese corpus They included ballad medleys comic farces Yuan music dramas Ming music dramas and the novel Shuihu zhuan The Japanese scholars who first dedicated themselves to study these works in the mid twentieth century were considered daring As late as 1981 no comprehensive dictionary or glossary for this literature existed in any language Asian or Western A Glossary of Words and Phrases fills this gap for Western readers allowing even a relative novice who has reasonable command of Chinese to read translate and appreciate this great body of literature with an ease undreamed of even two decades ago The Glossary is organized into approximately 8 000 entries based on the reading notes and glosses found in various dictionaries thesauruses glossaries and editions of works from the period Main entries are listed alphabetically in the pinyin romanization system In addition to glosses entries include symbolic annotations guides to pronunciation and text citations The result is a broadly useful glossary serving the needs of students of this literature as well as scholars researching Jin and Yuan language and its usage Winnowing Star Richard Hilliard, 1984-07-01 Austin is horrified to discover that a huge mass of energy is approaching the earth and threatens to destroy the planet
