Zither Autobiography:

Zither & Autobiography Leslie Scalapino, 2003 A reflective eclectic mixture of poetry and prose Autobiography Sir Hubert von Herkomer, 1890 Autobiographies II Sean O'Casey, 2011-10-20 I thought that no man liveth and dieth to himself so I put behind what I thought and what I did the panorama of the world I lived in the things that made me Sean O'Casey 1948 Sean O'Casey's six part Autobiography originally published between 1939 and 1955 is an eloquently comprehensive self portrait of an artist's life and times unsurpassed in literature Drums Under the Windows 1945 sees O'Casey's young pre writing life taking shape amid the extraordinary tumult of Ireland in the early twentieth century thus leading him into the fray of the Easter Rising of 1916 Inishfallen Fare Thee Well 1949 charts the steps towards his emigration from Ireland in 1926 a move pressed upon O'Casey by his hard struggle against the restrictions and prohibitions wrought by Irish society church and state Faber Finds is devoted to restoring to readers a wealth of lost or neglected classics and authors of distinction The range embraces fiction non fiction the arts and children's books For a full list of available titles visit www.faberfinds.co.uk To join the dialogue with fellow book lovers please see our blog www.faberfindsblog.co.uk It's Go in Horizontal Leslie Scalapino, 2008-04-08 The poems embody ideas about writing and formal inventions demonstrating how one invention leads to the next Jacket flap An Autobiography Mary Howitt, 1889 Theodore Thomas, a Musical Autobiography Theodore Thomas, 1905 Sound Changes Daniel Fischlin, Eric Porter, 2021-05-17 Sound Changes responds to a need in improvisation studies for more work that addresses the diversity of global improvisatory practices and argues that by beginning to understand the particular material experiences of sonic realities that are different from our own we can address the host of other factors that are imparted or sublimated in performance These factors range from the intimate affect associated with a particular performer's capacity to generate a distinctive voicing or the addition of an unexpected sonic intervention only possible with one particular configuration of players in a specific space and time Through a series of case studies drawn from Africa Asia the Americas and Oceania Sound Changes offers readers an introduction to a range of musical expressions across the globe in which improvisation plays a key role and the book demonstrates that improvisation is a vital site for the production of emergent social relationships and meanings As it does this work Sound Changes situates the increasingly transcultural dimensions of improvised music in relation to emergent networks and technologies changing patterns of migration and immigration shifts in the political economy of music and other social cultural and economic factors Improvisation studies is a recently developed but growing interdisciplinary field of study The discipline which has only truly come into focus in the early part of the twenty first century has been building a lexicon of key terms and developing assumptions about core practices Yet the full breadth of improvisatory practices has remained a vexed if not impossibly ambitious subject of study This volume offers a step forward in the movement away from critical tendencies that tend to homogenize and reduce practices and vocabularies in the name of the familiar A Selective Bibliography for
