The Supermarketers:

The Darlings Robert F. Chisholm, 1970 Insights into the psychology of buying and selling For operators and executives of supermarkets Decisions and Orders of the National Labor Relations Board United States. National Labor Relations Board, 1969 Jaworski v. Great Scott Supermarkets, Inc., 403 MICH 689 (1978), 1978 58979 National Labor Relations Board V. Marsh Supermarkets, Inc, 1963 Sustainable Food Networks: Chains of Values and Food Transitions Carolina Yacamán-Ochoa, José Luis Sánchez-Hernández, Javier Sanz-Cañada, 2025-06-12 Sustainable Food Networks SFNs are emerging as pivotal value chains for agroecological and food transitions in both urban and rural territories These networks aim to create a healthy fair localized and inclusive food supply model standing in contrast to the dominant corporate food system characterized by long haul complex and fragile supply chains Despite their potential SFNs such as community supported agriculture farmers markets and urban agriculture have not been thoroughly examined through the lens of economic geography and related interdisciplinary perspectives The current globalized food system is fraught with economic social and environmental issues including the marginalization of family farming environmental degradation and the loss of local knowledge and biodiversity SFNs offer a critical alternative by emphasizing small batch production environmental sustainability and social equity yet there remains a significant gap in understanding their full impact and potential This research topic aims to collate comprehensive research on Sustainable Food Networks SFNs with specific objectives identifying various SFN initiatives across different territories evaluating their spatial dimensions in global contexts and assessing policies that can enhance the social economic and environmental sustainability of food value chains Key questions include how alternative values are propagated within SFNs the critical spatial nodes for these values the role of urban and peri urban agriculture and the interplay between territorial conditions and SFN performance Additionally the research seeks to understand how SFNs compete with hegemonic value chains and the potential role of public policy in strengthening these networks To gather further insights into the complexities and potentials of SFNs we welcome articles addressing but not limited to the following themes The propagation and transfer of alternative values within SFNs Identification of critical spatial nodes for the reproduction of these values Roles of urban and peri urban agriculture in SFNs Relationships between territorial conditions governance and SFN performance Strategies employed by SFNs to tackle competition from corporate value chains The impact of SFNs on the surge of local organic and healthy food outlets The role of public policy in supporting and strengthening SFNs National Labor Relations Board V. Economy Food Center, Inc, 1963 The Strategy Pathfinder Duncan Angwin, Stephen Cummings, Chris Smith, 2011-12-12 This new edition of the popular The Strategy Pathfinder updates the micro cases of real life problems faced by companies and executives These micro cases help readers to engage with the kinds of situations they will encounter in their working lives while provoking discussions about key theoretical themes Original presentation and design makes this an essential companion for both the business school classroom and the executive briefcase The Strategy Pathfinder brings experienced and potential executives alike an instant guide to the concepts and techniques they need to know An innovative introduction to strategy Makes readers active producers of strategy rather than passive recipients of received wisdom Presents essential pathways through the strategy jungle Each case provokes discussion about a key theoretical theme Encourages readers to form a view themselves and then test it against the views of others before offering recommendations about how best to proceed Cases are drawn from Africa the Americas Asia Europe and Oceania Supported by online lecturer supplements
