Zen Brushwork Tanchu Terayama, 2016-06-24 With its bold strokes and mystic aura Zen calligraphy has fascinated Westerners for decades yet it remains an abstract rarely practiced form of expression outside of Asia Now master calligrapher Tanchu Terayama explains the techniques behind this subtle art and offers step by step instructions for practicing it on a professional level After introducing the basics Terayama presents a unique meditative warm up to establish the proper mental attitude needed to release one's creative energies Next the power of the brushed line is explained and demonstrated What makes a good line or a bad one an expressive effort or an unfocused one Lessons on brushing symbolic Japanese characters follow including those for emptiness nothingness and flower The painting section shows readers how to draw the spare yet elegant pictorial themes of this classic art bamboo plum blossoms Mount Fuji and the inspirational Zen priest Daruma If the exercises are the heart of the book the Appreciation section is the soul This chapter introduces classic works from renowned priests and other historical figures including Miyamoto Musashi the celebrated swordsman and author of The Book of Five Rings Morihei Ueshiba the founder of aikido Jigoro Kano the father of judo and Zen priest Hakuin Each masterpiece is accompanied by penetrating commentary on the strengths and salient features of the work Rarely has Zen calligraphy been demonstrated and discussed with such candor and insight Illuminating yet another side of Zen Zen Brushwork will be an invaluable source to those interested in meditation Zen Buddhism the martial arts and Oriental traditions in general of no mind a state beyond thought emotions and expectations Work that is produced through conscious effort is ultimately devoid of life Zen calligraphy in particular must spring from shonen sozoku a Buddhist term equivalent to true thought Shonen is a state of full concentration that is devoid of thoughts and ideas while sozoku here means free flowing continuity Greatness in brushwork cannot be achieved through conscious effort it is only achieved through the states of mu shin and shonen sozoku or no mind and a continuous state free of the thoughts and ideas that distract the mind Zen calligraphy differs from other calligraphic disciplines as it is focused on the realization of no mind Furthermore in contrast to sho which uses Chinese characters as a basis it is the expression of Zen through a brush whether the result is a single stroke a Zen circle or an ink painting While sho is restricted to brushed writing Zen calligraphy extends to other forms of brushwork Nearly all calligraphy today is born of conscious attention to an aesthetic concept but we rarely find lines that are truly alive In contrast the calligraphy of Zen masters such as Daito Kokushi 1282 1337 founder of Daitokuji temple in Kyoto or Ikkyu Sojun 1394 1481 resonates with the energy of no mind achieved through complete concentration In these works the lines are filled with vitality and the shapes are fresh and original Sen no Rikyu 1522 91 who established many of the basic precepts of the tea ceremony held that nothing surpassed Zen calligraphy as a subject for display in the alcove of the tea room He undoubtedly felt that only art works that reflect the eternal vitality of Zen writings could encourage the mind toward enlightenment Rikyu recognized that calligraphy necessarily demands the highest level of spirituality A line that manifests clarity cannot be drawn if the heart is clouded by worldly concerns a stroke cannot be brushed with resolution if the heart is agitated and calligraphy that reveals depth cannot be produced if cultivation and experience are shallow To write kanji characters that resonate and demonstrate their deeper meaning one's own mind must achieve unity with the meaning of the words a requirement that calls for a higher level of spirituality The calligrapher therefore must strive for the state of no mind through meditation and contemplation
