Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 2001 Stand-up Comedians on Television Museum of Television and Radio (New York, N.Y.), 1996 From Milton Berle to Jerry Seinfeld stand up comics have kept huge TV audiences roaring with laughter for 40 years Honoring this long tradition The Museum of Television Radio presents lively essays and more than 125 photographs focused on stand ups Includes dozens of routines gags stories and patter from such comics as Brett Butler Jay Leno Woody Allen and others The Business of Comedy 101 Jamie Roberts, 2024-03-22 Welcome to the world of standup comedy where laughter is not just a sound but a currency My name is Jamie Roberts and I've spent years honing my craft on stages big and small learning the ins and outs of the business of making people laugh In this book I'll share everything I've learned about turning your passion for comedy into a successful career Acting is Everything Judy Kerr, 1992 The ultimate guide for planning promoting and expanding your acting career Where to go who to call what to spend what not to do Includes acting techniques getting an agent commercials pictures and resumes scares child actors getting around L A as well as acting careers outside of L A Information ideas facts and special secrets for developing the actor inside you and establishing your career Kerr gives actors the resources they need to make it From headshots to fake cigarettes from changing one's name to that great plastic surgeon it's all in this book Filled with invaluable lessons this book is like eavesdropping at all the right Hollywood parties The author's hands on experience as an acting coach actress dialogue coach and producer comes to life on the pages of this essential book Happy Accidents David Ahearn, Frank Ford, David Wilk, 2017-08-14 Stop saying no to opportunity and start saying yes to possibility Happy Accidents is your personal guide to transforming your life As we take on task after task responsibility after responsibility we lose sight of who we are and why we're doing what we do we rush through the day completing a to do list but we never really seem to accomplish the things that are most important What goals do you have for your life What steps have you taken toward them today Consider this book your guide to getting back on track to your dreams and help inspire those around you It's not about doing more or doing less it's about making what you do worthy of the effort From forging new relationships stepping out of your comfort zone and reframing your work start valuing these as empowering choices you get to make toward a particular goal every day To preserve our precious time and energy we often default to no yet this only closes the door to our growth while a yes opens up a world of possibilities The secret is adding yes and to our lives This seductively simple turn of phrase opens the doors to better collaboration and positive relationships and invites self sustaining opportunities into our world Yes and helps you get from where you are as an individual or organization to where you want to be No person or organization is an island and none of us reaches our goals alone This book shows you how to build on the power of open mindedness cultivate supportive relationships and adopt a win win mindset to reignite your purpose and unleash your best Harness the power of team collaboration cooperation and creativity Reframe mistakes and bad ideas into Happy Accidents that lead to opportunities Communicate more effectively by learning how to listen actively and build on the pertinent information Relinquish some degree of control to allow for more

growth and discovery Children have a natural inclination toward curiosity As we grow into adults our curiosity gradually takes a back seat to obligations responsibility and duty but that spark remains and can be reignited Don't spend your life adrift in a sea of could've would've should've take back your sense of purpose positivity joy time and energy with the power of Happy Accidents Technology Review, 1992 New To Stand-Up Comedy? 101 Important Tips - by Sean Hegarty Sean Hegarty, 2020-03-07 Sean Hegarty is a professional comedian from Northern Ireland With over a decade of experience from open mic to corporate and live TV performances Sean shares his most important tips to getting started in an ever growing and evolving industry based on knowledge gained while climbing the ranks of the UK and Irish comedy circuit These tips will help you break onto the comedy scene regardless of where you are in the world and give you the confidence needed to progress From first timers looking to get a head start to established comics trying to reach the next step there really is something in this book for everyone Facts in a Flash Ellen Metter, 1999-09-15 A one stop research guide combining proven research strategies and short cuts with a range of annotated print and online sources Material is divided into general research areas covering everything from government statistics and current events to international cultures Each section offers its own special tips with information on how to use Internet search engines locate full text books online and access government depository collections Includes lists of periodical databases and commercial online database vendors Metter is a research librarian and bibliographer at the Auraria Library Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Bowker's Complete Video Directory, 1998, 1998 Time, 2002 Television Sitcom Brett Mills, 2005-11-17 Despite its global reach longstanding popularity and immense profitability sitcom has been repeatedly neglected in theoretical work on television and media This book demonstrates that this lack needs to be sorely addressed by dragging analysis of sitcom up to date with a wealth of contemporary examples a range of new approaches to the genre and examination of the roles sitcom and comedy play within society The book takes as its starting point the variety of ways in which sitcom has traditionally been explored A chapter on genre examines the history and development of sitcom and the institutional structures which produce it There is also analysis of differences between sitcoms produced in a range of countries and what happens when a programme gets sold abroad and remade A chapter on representation explores the debates about the ways in which sitcom chooses who to make jokes about and why and whether this matters And a chapter on performance argues that this is a vital and underexplored aspect of sitcom's funniness and interrogates the ways in which comic actors make their performance funny With specific case studies on Will and Grace The Office and The Cosby Show as well as analysis of a broad range of contemporary and historical examples throughout this book will be of interest to students of sitcom and comedy as well as those of television and popular culture Historical Dictionary of Australian Radio and Television Albert Moran, Chris Keating, 2007-09-10 Australians have become increasingly visible outside of the country as speakers and actors in radio and television their media moguls have frequently bought up foreign companies and people around the world have been able to enjoy such Australian productions as The Flying Doctors, Neighbours and Kath and Kim. The origins, early development and later adaptations of radio and television show how Australia has gone from being a minor and rather parochial player to being a significant part of the international scene. The Historical Dictionary of Australian Radio and Television provides essential facts and information concerning the Australian radio and television industry. This is accomplished through the use of a chronology, a list of acronyms and abbreviations, an introductory essay, a bibliography and hundreds of cross-referenced dictionary entries on directors, producers, writers, actors, television and radio series, and television and radio stations. The Enjoyment of Drama Milton Marx, 1961. The Purpose and Aim of Drama. What is a Play? Conflict, the Essence of Drama. Structure of a Play.
