Stanley Donen:

Stanley Donen Joseph Andrew Casper, 1983 A clear and insightful analysis of the life and work of American director and coreographer Stanley Donen Dancing on the Ceiling Stephen M. Silverman, 2019-04-03 The first book to explore the life and extraordinary work of the legendary moviemaker who directed Singin in the Rain On the Town and Funny Face from the author of David Lean Silverman has captured one of the world's truly great filmmakers Billy Wilder Stanley Donen is the man who forever changed the Hollywood musical moving it away from the Busby Berkeley extravagance to a felt integration of the songs and dances He is also the man who helped shape the sophisticated romance exemplified by Indiscreet and Charade The author with Donen's cooperation has brilliantly revealed Donen's fifty year career first in the theater next in Hollywood and then abroad We see Donen's collaborations with Fred Astaire Cary Grant Gene Kelly and Frank Sinatra And we see his work with Rodgers and Hart Alan Lerner Comden and Green Roger Edens Arthur Freed Michael Kidd and Bob Fosse We watch Donen growing up in the South in the 1930s seeking refuge at movies watching Fred Astaire dance on the screen and forever changed by it And then at sixteen fleeing to New York where he lands his first job in the chorus of the groundbreaking musical Pal Joey directed by George Abbott starring Gene Kelly and appearing next in Best Foot Forward We follow Donen west to MGM first he was a chorus boy then assistant choreographer next embellishing Anchors Aweigh dreaming up the almost technically impossible notion of having its star Gene Kelly dance with a cartoon character Jerry the Mouse and in the next decade making one great musical after another We hear Donen's recollections of life and work on the sets of Singin in the Rain Royal Wedding Funny Face Seven Brides for Seven Brothers On the Town The Pajama Game Indiscreet Charade Two for the Road Arabesque Bedazzled and other movies he directed We see him through the eyes of more than one hundred of his contemporaries whom in addition to Donen himself Silverman has interviewed at length from Kay Thompson and Billy Wilder to Deborah Kerr Audrey Hepburn Debbie Reynolds Gregory Peck and Cyd Charisse Dancing on the Ceiling gives close up a great director and a lost Hollywood on whose silver screen wit and charm abounded

Dance Me a Song Beth Genné, 2018-05-30 Dancer choreographer directors Fred Astaire George Balanchine and Gene Kelly and their colleagues helped to develop a distinctively modern American film dance style and recurring dance genres for the songs and stories of the American musical Freely crossing stylistic and class boundaries their dances were rooted in the diverse dance and music cultures of European immigrants and African American migrants who mingled in jazz age America The new technology of sound cinema let them choreograph and fuse camera movement light and color with dance and music Preserved intact for the largest audiences in dance history their works continue to influence dance and film around the world This book centers them and their colleagues within the history of dance where their work has been marginalized as well as film tracing their development from Broadway to Hollywood 1924-58 and contextualizing them within the American history and culture of their era This modern style like the nation in which it developed was pluralist and populist It drew from aspects of the old world and new high and low theatrical and social dance forms creating new sites for dance from the living room to the street A definitive ingredient was the freer more informal movement and behavior of their jazz age generation which fit with song lyrics that poeticized slangy American English The Gershwins Rodgers and Hart and others wrote not only songs but extended dance driven scores tailored to their choreography giving a new prominence to the choreographer and dancer actor This book discuss how these choreographers collaborated with directors like Vincente Minnelli and Stanley Donen and cinematographers like Gregg Toland musicians dancers designers and technicians to synergize music and moving image in new ways Eventually concepts and visual musical devices derived from dance making would give entire films the rhythmic flow and feeling of dance Dancing Americans came to be seen around the world as archetypal embodiments of the free spirited optimism and energy of America itself Dancing on the Ceiling Stephen M.
