

A Falling Star

It saw amongst a bed of stars that twinkled in the sky
A falling star like one of ours
That fell from way up high

Gifts from heaven; that's what they are
That God is sharing here
If I could catch a falling star I'd know my Lord was near

I bow my head; hope and pray for one to go astray
In hopes a star would ricochet and one would fall my way

In the eyes of a beholder
The thought is so divine
My long life is getting older
Hoping; this catch be mine

Poem by Mae Stein

Star Poems:

No Thanks E. E. Cummings, 2013-09-19 Reissued in an edition newly offset from the authoritative Complete Poems 1904 1962 edited by George James Firmage E E Cummings along with Pound Eliot and Williams helped bring about the twentieth century revolution in literary expression He is recognized as the author of some of the most beautiful lyric poems written in the English language and also as one of the most inventive American poets of his time Fresh and candid by turns earthy tender defiant and romantic Cummings s poems celebrate the uniqueness of each individual the need to protest the dehumanizing force of organizations and the exuberant power of love No Thanks was first published in 1935 although Cummings was by then in mid career he had still not achieved recognition and the title refers ironically to publishers rejections No Thanks contains some of Cummings s most daring literary experiments and it represents most fully his view of life romantic individualism The poems celebrate an openly felt response to the beauties of the natural world and they give first place to love especially sexual love in all its manifestations The volume includes such favorites as sonnet entitled how to run the world may I feel said he Jehovah buried Satan dead be of love a little and the now famous grasshopper poem The Eastern Star ,1910 Literacy on Display Linda Duncan, Liz Webster, 2002 Star Dust Frank Bidart, 2005-06-15 In 2002 Frank Bidart published a sequence of poems Music Like Dirt the first chapbook ever to be a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize From the beginning he had conceived this sequence as the opening movement in a larger structure now with Star Dust finally complete Throughout his work Bidart has been uniquely alert to the dramatic possibilities of violence in this and in his sense of theater he resembles the great Jacobean dramatists It is no accident that Webster s plays echo in The Third Hour of the Night the brilliant long poem that dominates the second half of Star Dust Bidart locates in Benvenuto Cellini the speaker truest to his own vision Who better to speak of the drive to create not as reverie or pleasure or afterthought but as task and burden thwarted by the world In its scale sonorities extraordinary leaps and juxtapositions The Third Hour of the Night makes an astonishing counterbalance to the intense spare lyrics that precede it In this profound and unforgettable new book the dream beyond desire which now seems to represent human destiny is rooted in the drive to create a drive tormented at every stage by failure as the temporal being fights for its survival by making an eternal life Bidart is a poet of passionate originality and Star Dust shows that the forms of this originality continue to deepen and change as he constantly renews his contract with the idea of truth Star Dust is a 2005 National Book Award Finalist for Poetry "The Star Spangled Banner" Oscar George Sonneck, 1914 Popular Educator ,1923 Report on "The Star-Spangled Banner," "Hail Columbia," "America," "Yankee Doodle" Oscar George Sonneck, 1909 Little Star Mark Halliday, 1987 Bulletin and Review of the Keats-Shelley Memorial, Rome Keats-Shelley Memorial, Rome, 1910 A Concordance to the Works of Alfred Tennyson , 1870 Your Library , 1927 Dictionary of Contemporary Quotations (English) Helena Swan, 1904 The Double Dealer , 1923 Bulletin of the Keats-Shelley Memorial, Rome Keats-Shelley Memorial, Rome, 1910 Editor &

Robert Frost John H. Timmerman,2002 Robert Frost The Ethics of Ambiguity examines Frost s ethical positioning as a poet in the age of modernism The argument is that Frost constructs his poetry with deliberate formal ambiguity withholding clear resolutions from the reader Therefore the poem itself functions as metaphor inviting the reader into a participation in constructing meaning Furthermore the ambiguity of ethical positioning was intrinsic to Frost himself Nonetheless by holding his poetry up to several traditional ethical views Rationalist Theological Existentialist Deotological and Social Ethics one may define a congruent ethical pattern in both the poetry and the person The Paper and Printing Trades Journal ,1886
