Nance,2023-06-06 In a beautifully written science packed and inspirational memoir Egyptian American astrophysicist Sarafina El Badry Nance shares how she boldly carved out a place in the field of astrophysics grounding herself in a lifelong love of the stars to face life s inevitable challenges and embrace the unknown As a child Sarafina El Badry Nance spent nearly every evening with her father gazing up at the flickering stars and pondering what secrets the night sky held The daughter of an American father and Egyptian mother who both pushed her toward academic excellence Sarafina dreamed of becoming an astronomer and untangling the mysteries of the stars overhead But it wasn t long before she was told both explicitly and implicitly that girls just weren t cut out for math and science In Starstruck Sarafina invites us to consider the cosmos through fascinating science lessons to open each chapter But she also traces more earthbound obstacles of misogyny and racism abuse and intergenerational trauma anxiety and self doubt cancer diagnoses and recovery she faced along the way As her career and passion for space brought her from UT Austin to UC Berkeley and even to a Mars astronaut simulation in Hawai i Sarafina learned how to survive and ultimately thrive in a space that was seldom welcoming to women and especially not to women of color Honest and empowering Starstruck sits at the intersection of the study of our cosmos itself constantly changing and the transformative experience of embracing resilience to pursue one s passion The Brush-Off

The Star-Crossed Stone Ken McNamara,2010-11-15 Throughout the four hundred thousand years that humanity has been collecting fossils sea urchin fossils or echinoids have continually been among the most prized from the Paleolithic era when they decorated flint axes to today when paleobiologists study them for clues to the earth s history In The Star-Crossed Stone Kenneth J McNamara an expert on fossil echinoids takes readers on an incredible fossil hunt with stops in history paleontology folklore mythology art religion and much more Beginning with prehistoric times when urchin fossils were used as jewelry McNamara reveals how the fossil crept into the religious and cultural lives of societies around the world the roots of the familiar five pointed star for example can be traced to the pattern found on urchins But McNamara s vision is even broader than that using our knowledge of early habits of fossil collecting he explores the evolution of the human mind itself drawing striking conclusions about humanity s earliest appreciation of beauty and the first stirrings of artistic expression Along the way the fossil becomes a nexus through which we meet brilliant eccentrics and visionary archaeologists and develop new insights into topics as seemingly disparate as hieroglyphics Beowulf and even church organs An idiosyncratic celebration of science nature and human ingenuity The Star-Crossed Stone is as charming and unforgettable as the fossil at its heart

Give Us This Day Charles Erlandson,2011-08 Give Us This Day is a unique daily devotional commentary for the entire New Testament based on the ancient method called lectio divina Lectio divina or divine reading is the method used by the early church and countless Christians through the centuries to read the Scriptures to form and transform the soul more than merely to inform the mind Rather than writing a short devotional about a particular verse from a passage Give Us This Day deals in depth with entire passages and their contexts rather than selecting only certain portions of the New Testament to write about Fr Charles has written a devotional for each and every passage of the New Testament At the end of each day's devotional an appropriate Prayer is offered as well as Points for Further Reflection on the day's lesson Each devotional concludes with a suggested Resolution to put into effect what the Spirit has stirred up in the heart of the reader during the course of his reading meditation and prayer Matthew is the first volume of an eight volume series that will provide daily devotionals for every passage in the New Testament
