Starting Over Dave Ferguson, Jon Ferguson, 2018-06-05 I wish I had loved more I wish I had been smarter about money I wish I had thought about God more We all have regrets about the past Many of them come from our attempts to fulfill unmet longings Dave and Jon Ferguson call this back and forth between longing and regret the Sorry Cycle and they want to help us escape it In Starting Over Dave and Jon show us how to recognize specific regrets and then release them to God as we learn to see our regrets as opportunities to start over Finally we can see God redeem our regrets as he takes the worst things in our lives and uses them for a greater good In this new edition Dave and Jon provide an inspiring and never before published case study for achieving real life change Your regrets don't need to keep you from the joy God has for your life As you apply the recognize release redeem process to your financial relational and personal regrets you will find new freedom in living out your God given dreams Fall in Love with Your Regrets It sounds impossible How can we learn to love our mistakes and failures Instead we go over and over them in our mind Could they ever bring us or anyone else good Drawing from scientific research and biblical truths Jon and Dave Ferguson give us tools to redeem our mistakes in five key areas relationships health purpose finances and spirituality Along the way they teach us lifelong skills for getting unstuck when regret threatens to trap us again We also learn how to help others escape the Sorry Cycle and experience the Starting Over Loop It is possible to learn to love our regrets because through them we see God at work We see that our weakness does not limit what God can do Whatever regret is trapping you in the Sorry Cycle God is big enough to redeem it What could you do with a life beyond regret Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, 1999
