Starting From Scratch A Different Kind:

Starting from Scratch Rita Mae Brown, 2011-05-04 From the best selling author of Rubyfruit Jungle and Bingo here is a writers manual as provocative frank and funny as her fiction Unlike most writers guides this one had as much to do with how writers live as with mastering the tools of their trade Rita Mae Brown begins with a very personal account of her own career from her days as a young poet who had written a novel no publisher wanted to take a chance on right up to her recent adventures as a Hollywood screenwriter In a sassy style that makes her outspoken advice as entertaining as it is useful she provides straight talk about paying the rent while maintaining the energy to write and dealing with agents publishers critics and the publicity circus about pursuing journalism academia or screen writing and about rejecting the Hemingway myth of the hard living hard drinking genius In addition Brown a former teacher of writing offers a serious examination of the writer's tool language plotting characters symbolism plus exercises to sharpen the ear for dialogue and a fascinating annotated reading list of important works from the seventh century to the late twentieth
