The Tarnished Angel David J. Hawkes, 1998-09 What about the rest of you Hazen's words interrupted Lynda's thoughts with a quick smile Lynda answered Yes Poppa I would love to hear your story I would really like to know where that angel came from come to think of it I do remember it as a small child Ah so you do remember it do you asked Hazen a twinkle in his eye with her fingers Lynda rubbed at a bit of the tarnish that had discolored the angel It's tarnished Lynda whispered But it's just as I remember Gently Hazen took the small figure of an angel from Lynda and closely examined it the silver finish was tarnished and faded and it could still see the smiling features of the face and the arms spread wide as if welcoming someone or something This heart warming Christmas tale will take you deep into the mountains of Idaho during the years of the Great Depression when life was hard and money was scarce Hazen who wears a red mackinaw coat proves to be a real angel maybe a bit old and tarnished but an angel none the less Hazen shows us that some angels are not just heavenly beings they are earthly beings who answer everyday prayers The Tarnished Angel is a treasured family story that can be enjoyed year round and will last from one generation to the next CLICK HERE TO ADD AN AUTHOR BIO
