Voice Form And Function Typological Studies In Language:

Voice: Form and Function Barbara A. Fox, Paul J. Hopper, 1994-04-06 The volume's central concern is grammatical voice traditionally known as diathesis and its classical manifestations as Active Middle and Passive While numerous problems in the meaning syntax and morphology of these categories in Indo European remain unsolved their counterparts in more exotic languages have raised still further questions What discourse functions and diachronic events unite voice as a recognizable phenomenon across languages How are they typically grammaticalized What stages do children go through in learning them How does voice link up with ergativity and with other categories and constructions such as the Inverse and the Antipassive The authors in this volume have different perspectives on these problems they discuss voice e g from a typological universal view in relation to language acquisition and to ergativity and from diachronic and cross linguistic perspectives Language Typology and Language Universals 2. Teilband Martin Haspelmath, Ekkehard König, Wulf Oesterreicher, Wolfgang Raible, 2008-07-14 No detailed description available for Language Typology and Language Universals 2 Teilband Studies in Language, 2009 Evolutionary Syntax Ljiljana Progovac, 2015-06-05 This is an open access publication available online and distributed under the terms of a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 International licence CC BY NC ND 4.0 a copy of which is available at <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-nd/4.0/> Subject to this license all rights are reserved In this book Ljiljana Progovac proposes a gradualist adaptationist approach to the evolution of syntax subject to natural selection She provides a specific framework for its study combining the fields of evolutionary biology theoretical syntax typology neuroscience and genetics The author pursues an internal reconstruction of the stages of grammar based on the syntactic theory associated with Chomskyan Minimalism and arrives at specific testable hypotheses which are then corroborated by an abundance of theoretically analysed living fossils drawn from a variety of languages Her approach demonstrates that these fossil structures do not just coexist alongside more modern structures but are in fact built into the very foundation of more complex structures leading to quirks and complexities that are suggestive of a gradualist evolutionary scenario By reconstructing a particular path along which syntax evolved Evolutionary Syntax sheds light on the crucial properties of language design itself as well as on the major parameters of crosslinguistic variation As a result this reconstruction can be meaningfully correlated with both the hominin timeline and the ever growing body of genetic evidence that is available The Papuan Languages of Timor, Alor and Pantar Antoinette Schapper, 2014 These volumes present descriptive sketches of the Papuan languages scattered over the islands of Timor Alor and Pantar Together they comprise an authoritative and comprehensive overview of the unique and diverse grammars of the Timor Alor Pantar languages The Timor Alor Pantar languages are a group of related Papuan outliers located at the western perimeter of the Melanesian area which until recently were largely undocumented The Grammar of Yogad Philip W. Davis, 1998 Linguistics, 2006 Algonquian and Iroquoian Linguistics, 2003 A Parametric Grammar of Seediq Arthur J. Holmer, 1996 □□□□□

,2008 Linguistic Typology,1997 Typology of Verbal Categories L. I. Kulikov,Heinz Vater,1998 The typological studies of this volume are oriented towards the areas of interests of the Russian typologist Vladimir P Nedjalkov to whom the volume is dedicated They deal with the typology of verbal categories The book is divided into three parts 1 Ergativity and transitivity 2 Voice causative and valency 3 Tense and mood In all three parts of the volume instances of grammaticalization are pointed out and investigated The studies concern various languages e g English French German Russian Hungarian Dutch Tariana a North Arawak language from North West Amazonia Dumi a Tibeto Burman language and Lak a Daghestanian language

Passivization and Typology Werner Abraham,Larisa Leisiö,2006-09-20 Is the passive a unified universal phenomenon The claim derived from this volume is that the passive if not universal has become unified according to function Language as a means of communication needs the passive or passive like constructions and sooner or later develops them based on other voices impersonal active middle reflexive specific semantic meanings such as adversativity or tense aspect categories stative perfect preterit Certain contributors review the passives in various languages and language groups including languages rarely discussed Another group of contributors takes a novel theoretical approach toward passivization within a broad typological perspective Among the languages discussed are Vedic Irish Mandarin Chinese Thai Lithuanian Mordvin and Nganasan next to almost all European languages Various theoretical frameworks such as Optimality Theory Modern Structuralist Approaches Role and Reference Grammar Cognitive Semantics Distributed Morphology and Case Grammar have been applied by the different authors Converbs in Cross-linguistic Perspective Martin Haspelmath,Ekkehard König,1995 No detailed description available for Converbs in Cross Linguistic Perspective Italian Clitics Cinzia Russi,2008 Main description This book provides a comprehensive primarily descriptive investigation of important trends in the evolution of Italian object pronouns It offers the first in depth characterization of the most frequent verbi procomplementari whose distinctive property is the complete incorporation of pronouns as grammatically and semantically obligatory elements International Journal of Corpus Linguistics,1996 Languages of the World,1993

Language George Melville Belling,Bernard Bloch,2004 Formulaic Language Roberta Corrigan,Edith A. Moravcsik,Hamid Ouali,Kathleen Wheatley,2009-05-20 This book is the second of the two volume collection of papers on formulaic language The collection is among the first in the field The authors of the papers in this volume represent a diverse group of international scholars in linguistics and psychology The language data analyzed come from a variety of languages including Arabic Japanese Polish and Spanish and include analyses of styles and genres within these languages While the first volume focuses on the very definition of linguistic formulae and on their grammatical semantic stylistic and historical aspects the second volume explores how formulae are acquired and lost by speakers of a language in what way they are psychologically real and what their functions in discourse are Since most of the papers are readily accessible to readers with only basic familiarity with linguistics the book may be used in courses on discourse structure pragmatics semantics language acquisition and syntax as well as being a resource in linguistic research
