Waiting For Lila:

After She Stopped Waiting Nilta Kana, He broke her trust again and again She stayed soft loyal exhausted believing love could teach him what he refused to learn But forgiveness is futile and neither is time After She Stopped Waiting is a heartbreaking romance about Raka a man addicted to attention and Lila the woman who loved him with a steady devotion he didn't deserve Each betrayal is followed by an apology he practices too well until Lila's quiet strength begins to run out When her health starts to fail the question isn't whether she will forgive him again It's whether he will finally become the kind of man who is safe to love before it's too late Told in tender intimate scenes and painful truths this story explores loyalty regret and the quiet work of becoming better when the person you hurt can no longer be there to save you from yourself A romance that doesn't look away from consequences and a reminder that love is not proven by words but by what you choose when nobody is watching
