The Wake of Imagination Richard Kearney, 1988 The story of imagination is rich and absorbing Like all species under threat of extinction the imagination needs to be recorded in terms of its genealogy its conceptual origins and mutations Richard Kearney investigates the formative concepts of imagination as they first emerged in the Greek and Biblical traditions and later through the modern and postmodern periods of Western cultural history back cover The Wake of Imagination Richard Kearney, 2002-11 With his remarkable range of vision the author takes us on a voyage of discovery that leads from Eden to Fellini from paradise to parody plotting the various models of the imagination as Hebraic Greek medieval Romantic existential and post modern The Wake of Imagination Richard Kearney, 1988 The author takes us on a voyage of discovery that leads from Eden to Fellini from paradise to parody plotting the various models of the imagination as Hebraic Greek medieval Romantic existential and post modern The Spectator ,1889 Godly Play Jerome Berryman, 1991 Godly play is play for the pleasure of playing itself Unconcerned with glory fame wealth family art or science it is not worklike Godly play makes the player graceful so that God the player other players and God s earth can all join in the game Berryman explores the need to be childlike that runs through the New Testament an idea born out by modern behavioral discoveries He examines such educational issues as worship the uses of religious language and reconceptualizing the meaning of lessons and provides hands on techniques for integrating laughter playfulness and structure from cover Brave Heart of Jesus Joe Egan, 2004 A critical look at Mel Gibson s film The Passion of the Christ Symposium - Société Canadienne Pour L'herméneutique Et la Pensée Postmoderne ,1999 The Living Age ,1898 Emory International Law Review ,2000 Rhetorics of Darkness Joshua Gresham Gunn, 2002 Point of Honor Robert N. Tang, 1993-11-16 This collection of essays addresses the perception that our understanding of modern China will be enhanced by opening the literature of China to more rigorous theoretical and comparative study. In doing so, the book confronts the problematic and complex subject of China's literary, theoretical, and cultural responses to the experience of the modern. With chapters by writers, scholars, and critics from mainland China, Hong Kong, and the United States, this volume explores the complexity of representing modernity within the Chinese context. Addressing the problem of finding a proper language for articulating fundamental issues in the historical experience of twentieth-century China, the authors critically re-examine notions of realism, the self, subject, and modernity and draw on perspectives from feminist criticism, ideological analysis, and postmodern theory. Among the many topics explored are subjectivity in Chinese cultural theory, Chinese gender relations, the viability of a Lacanian approach to Chinese identity, the politics of subversion in Chinese reportage, and the ambivalent status of the icon of paternity since Mao. At the same time, this book offers a probing look into the transformation that Chinese culture, as well as the study of that culture, is currently undergoing; it also reconfirms private discourse as an ideal site for an investigation into a real and imaginary, private and collective encounter with history. Contributors: Liu Kang, Xiaobing Tang, Liu Zaifu, Stephen Chan, Lydia H. Liu, Wendy Larson, Theodore Huterea, David Wang, Tonglin Lu, Yingjin Zhang, Yuejin Wang, Li Tuo, Leo Ou-fan Lee.

The Sign of the Witch David Waldron, 2008. The witch is a uniquely powerful image in Western society. It is a symbol alternately vilified, ridiculed, and idealised by differing sectors of society and is a powerful symbol in Western mythology. This book traces the evolution of the modern representations of Witchcraft and Paganism from the popular imaginings of witchcraft in 16th-century England to their contemporary manifestations amongst neo-Pagan and Wiccan religious movements in America, Australia, and Great Britain today. Tracing how this symbol is continually constructed and reconstructed by the neo-Pagan movement is indicative of broader social, political, and cultural issues arising out of the interaction of Romantic and Enlightenment epistemes in Western society. Central to this process is the locating of representations of witchcraft within the twin discourses of romanticism and enlightenment/modernity. Beginning with the aftermath of the English witch-hunting craze of the 17th century, the book examines how the witch transformed from a symbol of ridicule during the enlightenment to an idealised symbol of romantic rebellion, which led to its systemic adoption by romantic, religious, and political movements. Along the path, it examines the development of the neo-Pagan movement from 19th-century Romantic/Pagan revivals to Gardner's Wiccan movement, the sixties counter-culture, the rise of eco-feminist neo-Paganism, and the contemporary phenomena of teen witches and pop-commercialization. This book is part of the Ritual Studies Monograph Series, edited by Pamela J. Stewart and Andrew Strathern, Department of Anthropology, University of Pittsburgh. Modern Paganism is still in the process of finding its history. Dr. Waldron brings to the quest a very wide knowledge of all aspects of the subject and a good grasp of cultural theory. He is fair to all the players in a notoriously complex and fractious field and covers it deftly and evenly, deploying his learning and his intellectual models with a light but
