Obeng,2020-11-20 In a crises ridden society such as ours politicians in leadership positions are mostly honest but the disregard for truth and neglect of the needs of the citizenry create pain anger and apathy Political inexpediency results in policies that hurt minorities and the poor and also leads to useless and ill planned expensive wars that cost human life and emotional distress Our political actors ill conceived policies and ideologies often create chaos here at home and overseas and pitch different races and sociopolitical groups against each other In recent times lying bullying and reckless talk by political actors in leadership positions against each other and against journalists and political commentators have characterized our fight against pandemics and our overall health care system resulting in untold death and dying Never in our country s history have the two ideological poles left wing socialism and ultranationalist right wing taken a stranglehold on our polity creating depravity political corruption and shameless sycophancy Our actions have led to the creation of an emperor who kills dissent disrespects women mutes voices that dare reason and induces cognitive and emotional tumultuous discordance in the minds of most citizens including even the sycophantic chorus that sings to hail the emperor However all is not lost The United States exceptionalism projects inner strength that liberates the soul of the nation Ordinary Americans have always found ways to come together seek and found liberty and prospered like no other nation Patriotism selflessness and goodwill are deeply imbued in the fabric of our society such that no matter what the crisis is we see the proverbial light at the end of the tunnel and therefore persevere Collections Management as Critical Museum Practice Cara Krmptich,Alice

Stevenson,2024-07-22 There is a common misconception that collections management in museums is a set of rote procedures or technical practices that follow universal standards of best practice This volume recognises collections management as a political critical and social project involving considerable intellectual labour that often goes unacknowledged within institutions and in the fields of museum and heritage studies Collections Management as Critical Museum Practice brings into focus the knowledges value systems ethics and workplace pragmatics that are foundational for this work Rather than engaging solely with cultural modifications such as Indigenous care practices the book presents local knowledge of place and material which is relevant to how collections are managed and cared for worldwide Through discussion of varied collection types management activities and professional roles contributors develop a contextualised reflexive practice for how core collections management standards are conceptualised negotiated and enacted Chapters span national museums in Brazil and Uganda to community led heritage work in Malaysia and Canada they explore complexities of numbering digitisation and description alongside the realities of climate change global pandemics and natural disasters The book offers a new definition of collections management travelling from what is done to care for collections to what is done to care for collections and their users Rather than use being an end goal it emerges as a starting point to rethink collections work
