Regional Comparisons in Comparative Policy Analysis Studies Iris Geva-May, B. Guy Peters, Joselyn Muhleisen, 2020-06-29 Volume Three of the Classics of Comparative Policy Analysis contains chapters concerned with Regional Comparisons and Policy Analysis one of the most prevailing approaches in comparative public policy Through the prism of inter jurisdiction comparisons of similarities and variations they address comparisons in specific policy sectors governance or institutional constructs and political regimes The foci are nevertheless on those comparisons between countries or regions which help to lesson draw by identifying and understanding the variation in policy analysis and policy making that exists within or across regions One benefit of regional comparisons is that it often allows studies to hold constant many variables ranging from colonial legacy to federal systems or from language to specific traditions and more effectively isolate dependent variables Regional organizations like the Organization for Economic Co operation and Development OECD or European Union are also considered as catalysts for regional policy approaches and harmonization and occupy a major role in this volume The chapters address a broad and diverse number of countries and geographical areas Latin America North America East Asia Southeast Asia Southern Africa the Baltic states the Nordic states Western Europe Central Europe Eastern Europe and Europe as a whole Regional Comparisons and Policy Analysis will be of great interest to scholars and learners of public policy and social sciences as well as to practitioners considering what can be learned or facilitated through methodologically and theoretically sound approaches The chapters were originally published as articles in the Journal of Comparative Policy Analysis which in the last two decades has pioneered the development of comparative public policy The volume is part of a four volume series the Classics of Comparative Policy Analysis including Theories and Methods Institutions and Governance Regional Comparisons and Policy Sectors Each volume showcases a different new chapter comparing domains of study interrelated with comparative public policy political science public administration governance and policy design authored by the JCPA co editors Giliberto Capano Iris Geva May Michael Howlett Leslie A Pal and B Guy Peters

Policy Analysis in Germany Sonja Blum, Klaus Schubert, 2018-03-01 This comprehensive study part of the International Library of Policy Analysis brings together for the first time a systemic overview of policy analysis activities in Germany Written by leading experts in the field including informed practitioners it outlines the development of the discipline identifies its role in academic education and research and examines its styles and methods The book also focuses on the role of policy analysis for governments and parliaments for parties social partners and interest groups By offering a rich and timely analysis of policy analysis in Germany this book is a valuable resource for academic exchange and for teaching particularly in the fields of political science social sciences economics and geography Moreover by its broad comprehensive understanding of policy analysis the book will be of practical relevance and shape the debate for the future development of policy analysis in Germany and the different spheres where it is practised

Policy Analysis in Taiwan Yu-Ying Kuo, 2018-03-01 The study of policy analysis in Taiwan began in the 1970s however while other countries have recognised the need for detailed examination of the theory and practice of policy analysis at different levels of government Taiwanese studies have remained limited This book brings together for the first time a team of experienced and highly respected researchers from across Taiwan with expertise in policy analysis theory and practice in specific areas of government as well as in non governmental organisations This is a well structured volume which will be highly relevant for students and academics interested in understanding and analysing politics and policy making in Taiwan Features of the ILPA series include a country specific systematic study of policy analysis systems by government and non governmental actors a history of the country's policy analysis empirical case studies and a comparative overview of alternative approaches a key reference collection for research and teaching in comparative policy analysis and policy studies

Introduction to International Relations Georg Sørensen, Jørgen Møller, Robert H. Jackson, 2022 What are the challenges facing international cooperation to mitigate climate change Was US foreign policy under President Trump all that different from his predecessors Are we witnessing world order or world chaos With an emphasis on theoretical approaches and their application to the real world this book is the definitive guide to answering such key questions in international relations Throughout the text the authors encourage you to engage critically with essential theories by highlighting their strengths weaknesses and the major points of contention helping you to understand how contemporary debates in the discipline are connection with each other and how they are shaping the world in which we live New to this edition A new three part structure brings into clearer focus how theories meet real world developments A new final chapter on world order provides a current analysis of international turbulence encouraging you to connect theory to your own lived experience Chapter 11 now includes a detailed discussion of climate change and how we can spotlight the environment in international relations through Green Theory approaches Thoroughly refreshed and updated further reading recommendations support you in finding diverse and current scholarship to enhance your learning Book jacket
