World War I on Film Paul M. Edwards,2016-03-11 One of the central events of modern history World War I has been poorly presented in English language films Torn between the powerful isolationist movement in the U S and a growing hatred of the Hun contemporary films were mainly propaganda calling citizens to arms The American film industry used the outbreak of the war and the government s interest in promoting patriotic sacrifice as a means to expand and take the lead in the film industry worldwide More a business model than an art form these early efforts claimed a place of respectability for film among the arts Twenty years later though films produced about the war were few they were technically superior and generally carried conflicting messages about the war s mission and value while focusing more on storyline than history This study of English Language World War I films examines nearly 350 films from 1914 to 2014 Descriptions and critiques of each of the films are included with stories and details about the actors and directors

True Stories of World War 1, Complete Various,2016-02-19 World War I WWI or WW1 also known as the First World War or the Great War was a global war centred in Europe that began on 28 July 1914 and lasted until 11 November 1918 More than 70 million military personnel including 60 million Europeans were mobilised in one of the largest wars in history Over 9 million combatants and 7 million civilians died as a result of the war including the victims of a number of genocides a casualty rate exacerbated by the belligerents technological and industrial sophistication and the tactical stalemate caused by trench warfare a grueling form of warfare in which the defender held the advantage It was one of the deadliest conflicts in history and paved the way for major political changes including revolutions in many of the nations involved The war drew in all the world s economic great powers assembled in two opposing alliances the Allies based on the Triple Entente of the United Kingdom British Empire France and the Russian Empire versus the Central Powers of Germany and Austria Hungary Although Italy was a member of the Triple Alliance alongside Germany and Austria Hungary it did not join the Central Powers as Austria Hungary had taken the offensive against the terms of the alliance These alliances were reorganised and expanded as more nations entered the war Italy Japan and the United States joined the Allies while the Ottoman Empire and Bulgaria joined the Central Powers The trigger for the war was the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand of Austria heir to the throne of Austria Hungary by Yugoslav nationalist Gavrilo Princip in Sarajevo on 28 June 1914 This set off a diplomatic crisis when Austria Hungary delivered an ultimatum to the Kingdom of Serbia and entangled international alliances formed over the previous decades were invoked Within weeks the major powers were at war and the conflict soon spread around the world On 28 July the Austro Hungarians declared war on Serbia and subsequently invaded As Russia mobilised in support of Serbia Germany invaded neutral Belgium and Luxembourg before moving towards France leading the United Kingdom to declare war on Germany After the German march on Paris was halted what became known as the Western Front settled into a battle of attrition with a trench line that would change little until 1917. Meanwhile on the Eastern Front the Russian army was successful against the Austro Hungarians but was stopped in its invasion of East Prussia by the Germans. In November 1914 the Ottoman Empire joined the Central Powers opening fronts in the Caucasus, Mesopotamia and the Sinai. Italy joined the Allies in 1915 and Bulgaria joined the Central Powers in the same year while Romania joined the Allies in 1916 followed by the United States in 1917. The Russian government collapsed in March 1917 and a subsequent revolution in November brought the Russians to terms with the Central Powers via the Treaty of Brest Litovsk which constituted a massive German victory. After a stunning German offensive along the Western Front in the spring of 1918 the Allies rallied and drove back the Germans in a series of successful offensives. On 4 November 1918 the Austro-Hungarian empire agreed to an armistice and Germany which had its own trouble with revolutionaries agreed to an armistice on 11 November 1918 ending the war in victory for the Allies. By the end of the war the German Empire, Russian Empire, Austro-Hungarian Empire and the Ottoman Empire had ceased to exist. National borders were redrawn with several independent nations restored or created and Germany's colonies were parceled out among the winners. During the Paris Peace Conference of 1919 the Big Four (Britain, France, the United States and Italy) imposed their terms in a series of treaties. The League of Nations was formed with the aim of preventing any repetition of such a conflict. This however failed with economic depression, renewed European nationalism, weakened member states and the German feeling of humiliation contributing to the rise of Nazism. These conditions eventually contributed to World War II.
