Maiolo, 2017-03-14 No issue in modern history has been more intensively studied or subject to wider interpretation than the origins of the Second World War A conflict involving three arguably four major aggressor Powers operating simultaneously but largely separately on two continents inevitably raises complex theories and debates Each participating power has its own history and each one must take account of various influences upon the behaviour of its soldiers and statesmen His wide ranging collection of original essays each by an international expert in their field covers all aspects of the subject and highlights the controversy that continues to characterise current thinking on the origins of the war Going beyond the usual Eurocentric approach Part I examines the roles of all seven of the Great Powers including Japan and the USA as well as the parts played by several of the lesser Powers such as Czechoslovakia Poland and China Part II contains chapters which explore key themes that cannot be fully understood within the context of any single country These themes include the role of ideology propaganda intelligence armaments economics diplomacy the neutral states peace movements and the social science approach to war Written in clear jargon free prose together these essays provide a comprehensive single volume text for students and teachers and are essential reading for all with an interest in the debates surrounding the causes of World War Two Strategic Terror Beau Grosscup, 2013-07-18 Presenting a global history of aerial bombardment this book shows how certain European powers initiated aerial bombardment of civilians after World War I and how it was an instrument of choice in World War II Beau Grosscup shows that such methods used initially as a means of terrorizing native populations in Africa and the Middle East have become the primary form of terrorism in more recent decades While such strategic terror is not classed as terrorism in the West this reflects an unwillingness to confront the human costs and immorality of aerial bombardment Grosscup argues that if terrorism is to be diminished the role of aerial bombing in sustaining global violence must be recognized The Christian Century, 1927 World War 2: World War II in 50 Events James Weber, 2016-04-02 Do you want to learn how the bloodiest military conflict of all time began was fought and ultimately won by the Allies Read about the 50 most important events of World War II from the very beginning to the fall of the Axis Powers This book is perfect for history lovers Author James Weber did the research and compiled this huge list of events and battles that changed the course of history forever Some of them include The Japanese Invasion of Manchuria September 18 1931 The Signing of the Non Aggression Pact between Germany and the Soviet Union August 23 1939 The Battle of Britain Summer 1940 Pearl Harbor December 7 1941 The Destruction of Cologne during the Thousand Bomber Raid May 30 1942 The Battles of Midway June 1942 The German Surrender at Stalingrad February 2 1943 Drop of the Atomic
