World Without Want:

Beyond Want Ronnie Hale PhD MscD,2019-01-26 If you aren't where you want to be in life it may have something to do with you. What you want, think, how you spend your time and how you feel are all influenced by external variables that can invade your inner world. When this happens the results often lead to disaster. But by rethinking currently held beliefs and deciding what is truly important you can work toward your best life. Now is the time to literally retrain your subconscious mind. In this book the author explores how to prioritize your time and make positive decisions each moment of every day. Learn how to see all the options available to you on a daily basis, ask yourself new, better and empowering questions, redefine, reshape and reimagine your life and map out the steps you must take to achieve your goals. Hale also examines how prayer and affirmation is a conduit between humanity and the source of creation and how action steps are like stepping stones leading us to where we want to go. Look at life with a fresh perspective and start living your best life now without anything extra. With the lessons in Beyond Want.

Paul G. Hoffman Alan R. Raucher,2021-10-21 Having gained fame and success in business Paul G Hoffman went on to become involved in a wide range of public concerns. In this new and revealing biography Alan R Raucher provides the first assessment of Hoffman's entire career beginning with his rise to the presidency of Studebaker and his success in applying progressive management to lift it from bankruptcy to profitability. A firm believer in the automobile Hoffman became known as a sales genius, as a promoter of the new human relations approach to labor management and as the industry's apostle of automotive safety. Raucher follows the movement of Hoffman's career into the broad public arena. Having developed a reputation as a progressive industrial statesman Hoffman was a logical choice in 1948 to become the first administrator of the Marshall Plan, a key position in which he used economic foreign aid primarily to rebuild Western Europe in order to contain the spread of Communism. As the Cold War continued he came to regard economic foreign aid as a necessary sacrifice and dismissed all suggestions that the U.S. actually gave away billions of dollars in order to promote its own prosperity. Hoffman became convinced that foreign aid could promote peace and prosperity especially through economic development in the poorer countries. As the first president of the new Ford Foundation, as a confidant of President Eisenhower and as a top official of the U.N. Secretariat from the late 1950s to the early 1970s Hoffman continued to confront the problems of the emerging Third World in a career that sheds light on the rise of the powerful development establishment and on its attitudes and policies.

Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists, 1972-10 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security. Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin's iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world.

William Morris Arthur Clutton-Brock,2012-05-08 Through his eclecticism William Morris 1834-1896 was one of the most emblematic personalities of the nineteenth century. Painter, architect, poet and engineer, wielding the quill as well as the brush, he jolted Victorian society by discarding standards established by triumphant industry. His commitment to the writing of the Socialist Manifesto was the logical result of the revolution he personified in his habitat the form of his design and the colours he used Forerunner of twentieth century designers he co founded with John Ruskin the Arts and Crafts movement As an independent man William Morris led the way to Art Nouveau and later Bauhaus Through the essential body of his written and visual work Arthur Clutton Brock s masterwork deciphers the narrow relationship between ideals and creation as well as between evolution and revolution The Truth Seeker ,1893 Congressional Record United States.
