The thematic arrangement of topics includes diverse religious perspectives on war, terror, peace, human rights, pluralism, diversity, gender, spirituality, the interreligious dialogue, international diplomacy, and globalization. 'The world's religions' series George Thomas Bettany, 1892 Encyclopedia of the World's Religions Robert Charles Zaehner, 1997 Covers many world religions such as Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Zoroastrianism, Hinduism, Jainism, Buddhism, Shinto, Confucianism, Taoism, Sikhism, Dialectical materialism, etc. Jesus Christ and the World's Religions William Paton, 1928 The Illustrated World's Religions Huston Smith, 1995-08-18 Retaining all the beloved qualities of Huston Smith's classic The Religions of Man and the current fully revised and updated The World's Religions, this stunning pictorial presentation refines the text to its wonderful essentials. In detailed, absorbing, richly illustrated, and highly readable chapters on Hinduism, Buddhism, Confucianism, Taoism, Islam, Judaism, Christianity, and primal religions, we find refreshing and fascinating presentations of both the differences and the similarities among the worldwide religious traditions. The approach is at once classic and contemporary, retaining all the empathy, eloquence, and erudition that millions of readers love about the earlier editions, while being edited and designed for a contemporary general readership. This delightful marriage of winsome text and remarkable pictures vividly brings to life the scope and vision of Huston Smith's expertise and insight. The World's Religions in Figures Todd M. Johnson, Brian J. Grim, 2013-03-25 Created by two of the field's leading experts, this unique introduction to international religious demography outlines the challenges in interpreting data on religious adherence and presents a contemporary portrait of global religious belief. Offers the first comprehensive overview of the field of international religious demography, detailing what we know about religious adherents around the world and how we know it. Examines religious freedom and diversity, including agnostics and atheists, on a global scale, highlighting trends over the past 100 years and projecting estimates for the year 2050. Outlines the issues and challenges related to definitions, taxonomies, sources, analyses, and other techniques in interpreting data on religious adherence. Considers data from religious communities, censuses, surveys, and scholarly research, along with several in-depth case studies on the global Muslim population, religion in China, and the religious demography of recently created Sudan and South Sudan. Argues against the belief that the twentieth century was a secular period by putting forward new evidence to the contrary. Provides resources for measuring both qualitatively and quantitatively important data on the world's religious situation in the twenty-first century. The World's Congress of Religions John Wesley Hanson, 1894 The World's Parliament of Religions John Henry Barrows, 1893 The World's Religions Huston
