writing prose and literary criticism but from the late 1950s he composed primarily poetry with each successive volume of verse that he penned demonstrating his rigorous and growing commitment to that genre The mature visionary power and technical virtuosity of his work in the 1970s and early 1980s emanated from his strongly held belief that only insofar as the work of art establishes and expresses a self can it engage us Many of Warren s later poems which he deemed some of my best rejoice in the possibilities of old age and the poet s ability for continually expanding in a vital process of definition affirmation revision and growth a process that is the image we may say of the life process The Legend of the Star
