A Target on my Back Erleigh Wiley,2017-10-03 Murders don t happen in Kaufman County Texas a sleepy community where people raise their kids quietly and drive into Dallas for work and entertainment In 2013 murder came to town when two professional prosecutors were slain in cold blood simply for doing their jobs one in broad daylight in plain view of the courthouse and one in his home along with his wife Eric Williams is responsible for all the bloodshed and he has a list of who to kill next A Target on My Back is the first person true story of Erleigh Wiley an accomplished lawyer who accepted the job as the new district attorney after the death of her predecessors which turned her into the next target on the killer s hit list This is her story of how she and her family endured the storm of the press the array of Homeland Security agents assigned to protect them 24 7 and the weight of knowing she was someone s prey Though fearing for her life she served as the prosecution s final witness against the murderer sealing his fate on death row This chilling account of how she survived the hit list is a terrifying cat and mouse tale

Reinterpreting Criminal Complicity and Inchoate Participation Offences Dennis J. Baker,2016-05-26 In Reinterpreting Criminal Complicity and Inchoate Participation Offences Dennis J Baker argues that the mental element in complicity is one of intention that recklessness alone is not sufficient This is demonstrated by showing that the ancient and modern authorities on complicity required intention The book argues the causal participation element in complicity means that the conduct element can only be established when there is intentional encouragement on the part of the accessory As the Accessories and Abettors Act 1861 like most of the statutory provisions found in the United States deems that both perpetrator and accessory are perpetrators for the purpose of punishment and crime labelling limiting the mental element in complicity to intentional participation is the author argues the only way to reconcile these provisions with the requirements of proportionate punishment and fair labelling As some forms of reckless encouragement and assistance will not be criminalised if the mental element in complicity is intention only the author suggests that the solution is to amend section 45 of the Serious Crime Act 2007 to criminalise reckless participation In addition the author argues that standard complicity and joint enterprise complicity have the same mental and conduct elements and thus joint enterprise complicity is not a distinct form of complicity
