Strange Days:

The Cinema of Kathryn Bigelow Deborah Jermyn, Sean Redmond, 2003 Kathryn Bigelow is one of Hollywood's most significant female film makers well known in popular terms for films such as Near Dark, Blue Steel and Point Break yet remaining relatively unexplored in academia Placing particular emphasis on Strange Days her most ambitious and controversial picture to date this collection explores Bigelow's role within New Hollywood as a film maker that blurs genre conventions reinscribes gender identities and produces a breathless cinema of attractions Back cover Virtual Reality Melanie Chan, 2015-07-30 The idea of virtual realities has a long and complex historical trajectory spanning from Plato's concept of the cave and the simulacrum to artistic styles such as Trompe L'oeil and more recently developments in 3D film television and gaming However this book will pay particular attention to the time between the 1980s to the 1990s when virtual reality and cyberspace were represented particularly in fiction as a wondrous technology that enabled transcendence from the limitations of physical embodiment The purpose of this critical historical analysis of representations of virtual reality is to examine how they might deny repress or overlook embodied experience Specifically the author will contend that embodiment is a fundamental aspect of immersion in virtual reality rather than something which is to be transcended In this way the book aims to challenge distorted ideas about transcendence and productively contribute to debates about embodiment and technology

Restless Subjects in Rigid Systems Susanne Wegener, 2014-06-15

The anticipatory logic of speculation and preemptive politics of risk are increasingly gaining significance in a globalizing neoliberal world This study traces risk and speculation as aesthetic and political economic strategies in factual and fictional discourses emerging at the North American Pacific Rim within a decade around 2000 Its exemplary close readings in particular focus on three fictional texts Kathryn Bigelow's Hollywood film Strange Days 1995 Karen T Yamashita's novel Tropic of Orange 1997 and Larissa Lai's novel Salt Fish Girl 2002 whose intricate aesthetics pass perceptive critique on concurrent political economic discourses and their subtle reconfiguration of race class and gender The speculative near future scenarios projected by these artifacts expose the rise of risk as a new rationality of governance At the same time they illustrate neoliberal speculation as a new paradigm of subject formation at a hyper capitalist millennial Pacific Rim
