The Sunday Tertulia Lori Marie Carlson, 2009-05-26 Heartfelt intelligent imagine Amy Tan s The Joy Luck Club crossed with Laura Esquivel s Like Water for Chocolate Carlson s love and appreciation for Latin cadences and culture comes though on every page Los Angeles Times Claire is a young struggling New Yorker whose understanding of life is enriched after a group of older and wiser Latina women bring her into a close knit circle their Upper West Side tertulia Once a month they come together for a Sunday afternoon of revelry at which delicious food and strong opinions are served up in equal measure Through their recollections and counsel Claire comes to know the colorful exotic and sometimes contradictory attitudes that informed these women s lives She begins to see her own challenges through a prism more poetic and worldly Humorous and bittersweet The Sunday Tertulia brings to life cherished Latin traditions and celebrates women s wisdom and spirituality

Women, Men and Persons Britt-Marie Thurén, 2025-06-06 Urban ethnography about gender change Madrid in the 1990s was a lively place This book presents ethnographic examples and analyses of the way gender meanings were changing The context is middle class comparisons are made with an earlier work in a working class area of Valencia The theoretical focus is on processes of cultural change using mainly speech in natural situations as the empirical base since talking is one form of doing The historical and social background is also described Madrilenian conversations were full of examples from all walks of life and personal situations The historical moment was one of change from an authoritarian society to a more democratic one These larger circumstances were often symbolized in terms of gender issues A common idea in Madrilenian discussions was that women should be or become persons This use of the concept person has little to do with individualism or psychology It was rather an everyday way of expressing opposition to essentialized and hierarchical categorizations The phrase meant that a person is an active human being who refuses to be categorized by others whereas a woman must look and behave so that her gender is clearly contrasted to that of a man And this it was thought places women at a disadvantage But there were also those who thought that a woman can only be a person if she is a woman first
