Atkins,2009-04-30 The end of World War II saw an emergence of Holocaust dissention that began in Europe and has since developed into an international movement with adherents in almost every country in the world At first this denial was fueled by the desire to rehabilitate Adolf Hitler and the Nazi regime in an effort to reestablish a neo Nazi state In the following years coupled with the renewal of anti Semitism this dissent has been used as a means of denying the legitimacy of the state of Israel Despite these motivations the ultimate cause for concern is in the way this denial attracts its members by both challenging the existence of the Holocaust and the testimony of its witnesses By tracing the history causes and spread of Holocaust denial Atkins reveals the dangers this mindset poses to rational thinkers who become vulnerable to fringe ideas This book traces the state of the international Holocaust denial movement in the early 21st century grounding contemporary thought in the history of the movement Since Holocaust deniers have distorted the facts about this mass genocide Atkins discusses just what is known about the Holocaust from historical research conducted since World War II The role of negative racial genetics is explored in both Hitler's intellectual makeup and among the leaders of the German right wing including historians assessments of Hitler's anti Semitism motivations and decision making Also provided is a roll call of Holocaust dissenters in countries such as the United States Germany France Great Britain Russia and Italy among many others By analyzing the arguments of leaders within this expanding dissention movement this book demonstrates how extremists build informational links that have wide ranging effects The Palm at the End of the Mind Wallace Stevens,2011-05-04 This

In the End, God . . . John A. T. Robinson,2011-01-01 Eschatology is the explication of what must be true of the end both of history and of the individual if God is to be the God of the biblical faith All eschatological statements can finally be reduced to and their validity tested by sentences beginning In the end God J A T Robinson The God revealed in Israel s story is the Lord of history a God with good purposes for his creation and a God capable of bringing those purposes to pass All biblical eschatology arises from this fundamental theological insight If God is this God then what shape must the future have John A T Robinson explores biblical eschatology with an eye both to the text and to contemporary culture Revealing the foundation of eschatology to be the experience of God by the community of faith he calls readers to embrace the eschatological vision of the Bible but to do so in a way that is alert to its mythic character In the course of these explorations Robinson also lays bare his own theology of universal salvation But contrary to what one may expect this universalism is one that seeks to take both human freedom and the reality of hell with the utmost seriousness This special edition of John A T Robinson s classic text also includes a debate between Robinson and Thomas F Torrance played out across three articles from the Scottish Journal of Theology in 1949 an extended introduction by Professor Trevor Hart University of St Andrews Scotland and a foreword by Gregory MacDonald author of The Evangelical Universalist
