

A whimsical winter scene. At the top, a string of colorful lights (red, yellow, blue, green) and golden bells hangs across the frame. Below, a large bear wearing a blue and yellow patterned scarf sits on a log, looking up. A small pink rabbit sits next to it. To the left, a gift box wrapped in brown paper with a red ribbon is tied to a string of greenery, with two balloons (one red, one blue) floating above it. In the background, snow-covered evergreen trees are visible, and a small snowman with a red and white striped scarf peeks out from behind a tree on the right. The entire scene is set against a soft, snowy background with falling snowflakes.

Winnie in Winter (paperback and CD) Valerie Thomas, 2006-08-03 Winnie the Witch is tired of winter She s tired of shivering in the cold and looking out at her garden covered in snow And Wilbur is tired of frozen fur and whiskers So Winnie uses a little magic to bring summer and sunshine to her house But just as she settles down in her deckchair hordes of people arrive They are fed up with winter too But with the unruly crowd comes noise and mess and chaos Winnie grows increasingly indignant Why should all these people spoil her summer Winter may be cold but at least it s peaceful So Winnie summons back the snow to make her unwelcome visitors disappear This is a great story that really conjures the contrast of frozen winter and scorching summer and the sounds of crunching through snow Christmassy themes summery birdsong and sun seeking revellers are just some of the wonderful additions to the narration of Winnie in Winter on the accompanying audio CD
