Woman Hating Andrea Dworkin, 2025-02-25 Reissued with a bold modern package Andrea Dworkin's debut book Woman Hating argues that a deep rooted hatred of women in history art politics and beyond has reigned and influenced and formed culture for centuries A classic work in the canon of radical feminist thinking Andrea Dworkin's 1974 debut Woman Hating is a stunning exploration of how women and the idea of women have been treated through the centuries From fairy tales to erotic novels to medieval witch burnings Dworkin uncovers the ways in which a rhetoric of hate and violence against women has been historically normalized leading to a history of degradation mutilation and even killing Identity Politics in the Women's Movement Barbara Ryan, 2001-08 An essential collection that constructs the arguments of similarity and difference dividing and uniting women In recent years identity has come to be seen as a process rather than a fact or deterministic force Yet recognizable identity traits continue to draw people together and provide them with a sense of empowering commonality Although the plasticity afforded identity has freed up rigid definitions and guidelines for affiliation some believe that nebulous demarcations of identity may deprive women of a solid position from which to effectively contest centers of power Bringing together articles by well known authors and theorists such as Audre Lourde June Jordan Daphne Patai Barbara Smith Marilyn Frye Shane Phelan Leila J Rupp Hazel Carby and Adrienne Rich with lesser known writers and scholars this broad based anthology ranges widely from personal narratives to empirical research The book unpacks issues of race class gender ethnicity sexuality disability and age contributing a m lrange of sharp lively perspectives to current debate In a postmodern era of feminism how do women come to identify organize and mobilize themselves within a complex global network of relationships Identity Politics in the Women's Movement offers critical examination of the inescapable role of identity in academic and activist feminism and the opportunities challenges and conflicts identity politics pose Essays and Writings on Love and Women's Issues: The Collection, Vol. I (2012-2019) B. A. Hunter, 2025-10-06 This work contains the earliest blog articles from the author written between the years of 2012 2019 Ranging from mere poetic reflections of the author's traditionalist perspectives on love romance and culture to political commentary and legal and historical scholarly essays on the issues of sex and gender roles the author takes a no holds barred attitude persistently ripping into everyone both feminists antifeminists and every ideology in between and taking a decidedly nasty and brutal bite out of the so called manosphere and the blatant hypocrisies inherent in modern day conservatism Never truly on the Right and never truly on the Left and probably pleasing absolutely nobody the reader can easily note the change as the years go by with the articles undergoing a plain transformation from being shorter and relying more heavily on inter peer and social connections to blossoming into mere solitary legal historical scholarly works that span the length of dozens of pages as both the maturity and education of the author deepens A subtle change in perspective and attitude of the author can also be noted where feminism though never proclaimed nor upheld as a social good is blamed less and less over time for all of modern society's
