Altnamackin a few miles outside Newtownhamilton This book is the first attempt to tell the men s story It is a vividly imagined re creation of the time and circumstances of the murders coupled with an examination of their factual background The murders were particularly significant because they represented the first time that the GAA had found itself targeted by terrorists in such a public and blatant way Many more attacks on its members would follow in the next two decades At its core this book reveals both the human stories of loss behind the headlines that the murders generated and the inadequate official investigation which followed But above everything else this is the story of the lives and deaths on a country road in rural Armagh of Sean and Colm two friends on their way home from a football match   Subject Catalog, 1979 Library of Congress,1979   Artist's Book Yearbook 2001-2002 ,2001   Reality Studios ,1984
