Thompson, 2016-04-15 Black Music Black Poetry offers readers a fuller appreciation of the diversity of approaches to reading black American poetry It does so by linking a diverse body of poetry to musical genres that range from the spirituals to contemporary jazz The poetry of familiar figures such as Paul Laurence Dunbar and Langston Hughes and less well known poets like Harryette Mullen or the lyricist to Pharaoh Sanders Amos Leon Thomas is scrutinized in relation to a musical tradition contemporaneous with the lifetime of each poet Black music is considered the strongest representation of black American communal consciousness and black poetry by drawing upon such a musical legacy lays claim to a powerful and enduring black aesthetic The contributors to this volume take on issues of black cultural authenticity of musical imitation and of poetic performance as displayed in the work of Paul Laurence Dunbar Langston Hughes Sterling Brown Amiri Baraka Michael Harper Nathaniel Mackey Jayne Cortez Harryette Mullen and Amos Leon Thomas Taken together these essays offer a rich examination of the breath of black poetry and the ties it has to the rhythms and forms of black music and the influence of black music on black poetic practice Ste My Life

Set in the forties and fifties these stories take us back to a simpler gentler world the one we all like to think we grew up in The Kid at the centre of the stories is a boy on a Saskatchewan farm down Government Road from Crocus which is on the CNR line between Tiger Lily and Conception Jake is the hired hand who helps the Kid s mother run the farm and who played a huge role in Canadian history what with capturing Looie Riel and all and who now keeps the Kid abreast of events in the greater world and in Crocus This is no easy matter for the stories reveal that Crocus is a town in constant ferment The Kid s teacher Miss Henschbaw is unfairly dismissed by the school board until her friends fight back in Will of the People Chet Lambert of the Crocus Breeze is hauled into court for comparing George Solway with Malleable Brown s goat in The Face Is Familiar resulting in a courtroom confrontation unrivalled in the history of Canadian jurisprudence and Political Dynamite shows the men terrified by women curlers threatening to vote en bloc in the upcoming town election to gain equal curling time The town of course is rich not only in disputes but characters from Repeat Golightly in the barbershop One ahead of you Jake I say there s one ahead of you to Old Man Sherry the town s Oldest Inhabitant who wavers between tributes to Queen Elizabeth and Queen Victoria Then there s Old Man Gatenby brought from death s door by prolonged exposure to romantic purple prose in Love s Wild Magic Adding to this rich mixture are the entertainers who come through town Belva Taskey the sweet songstress Lo The Noble Redskin and her memorable poetry reading The Great Doctor Suhzee the hypnotist and Professor Noble Winesinger whose snake oil remedies have been known to turn his customers black There are also stories of prejudice against Indians or against foreigners named Kiziw that in the end remind us of the core of decency at the heart of this collection Whether the stories are told by Jake or by the Kid they always speak to our hearts and provide us with W O Mitchell s usual magical mixture of tears and laughter The Book of Love Roddy Lumsden,2000 Roddy Lumsden s poems eavesdrop on a half urban half surreal world of ladies men and misfits trying on roles and acting out fantasies His second collection The Book of Love is a celebration of love in all its delightful perversity Now out of print in this edition most of the poems were included in Mischief Night New Selected Poems 2004 The Youth's Companion Nathaniel Willis,Daniel Sharp Ford,1925 Includes music Margins Tom Montag,1975 A review of little magazines small press books The Comics Journal ,2007
