Worldwide Experiences and Trends in Sport for All Lamartine Pereira da Costa, Ana Miragaya, 2002 This collective volume contributes to a growing debate concerning the extent to which we are now living in a global society shaped by sport in addition to economy technology and so on It covers 36 countries from five continents analyzed by 87 contributors so it offers a large comparative study It is also a data bank of national information resources for students researchers policy makers sports leaders and managers By means of a standard framework used in all chapters the collected data from national cases on history management and culture of sport provide interpretations of marketing sponsorship finance target groups settings for activities strategy of promotion and social changes as related to Sport for All This cross national approach seeks to offer adequate meaning to the practices of each country stimulating further research on specific themes of physical activities for health and leisure either in affluent or poor social conditions The concluding chapter lays the groundwork of Sport for All

Spotting the Trend: An Entrepreneur's Success Story Jenny Chang, 2015-06-23 When Jenny Chang teamed up with her husband and sister to start an Internet security company she struggled with juggling a new business family life and the demands of traveling But Trend Micro Inc founded in 1988 with 5 000 in seed money grew into a Nikkei 225 company making more than 1 billion per year in revenue and with operations in more than twenty countries In this business book memoir she looks back at how she and her partners capitalized on the global threat of cyber crime turning a fledgling company into an amazing growth story Chang does much more than just revisit the company s history She shares the story of the three founders and their vision and she reveals all the details behind how they transformed the security industry and their own lives in ways they never imagined

Strength Coaching in America Jason P. Shurley, Jan Todd, Terry Todd, 2019-12-13 Shortlisted for the North American Society for Sports History 2020 Monograph Prize It s hard to imagine but as late as the 1950s athletes could get kicked off a team if they were caught lifting weights Coaches had long believed that strength training would slow down a player Muscle was perceived as a bulky burden training emphasized speed and strategy not brute strength Fast forward to today the highest paid strength and conditioning coaches can now earn 700 000 a year Strength Coaching in America delivers the fascinating history behind this revolutionary shift College football represents a key turning point in this story and the authors provide vivid details of strength training s impact on the gridiron most significantly when University of Nebraska football coach Bob Devaney hired Boyd Epley as a strength coach in 1969 National championships for the Huskers soon followed leading Epley to launch the game changing National Strength Coaches Association Dozens of other influences are explored with equal verve from the iconic Milo Barbell Company to the wildly popular fitness magazines that challenged physicians warnings against strenuous exercise Charting the rise of a new athletic profession Strength Coaching in America captures an important transformation in the culture of American sport
