Art and Architecture Division,1975      In Pursuit of Beauty Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),1986 This project is the first comprehensive study of a phenomenon that not only dominated the American arts of the 1870s and 1880s but also helped set the course of such later developments in the United States as the Arts and Crafts movement the indigenous interpretation of Art Nouveau and even the rise of modernism In fact the early history of the Metropolitan its founding its sponsorship of a school of industrial design and its display of decorative works is inextricably tied to the Aesthetic movement and its educational goals In Pursuit of Beauty Americans and the Aesthetic Movement comprised some 175 objects including furniture metalwork stained glass ceramics textiles wallpaper painting and sculpture Some of these had rarely been displayed others although familiar were being shown in new and even startling contexts The exhibition and catalogue are arranged thematically to illustrate both the major styles of a visually rich movement and the ideas that generated its diversity From publisher s description      Conservation of Stained Glass in America Julie L. Sloan,1995      The church as sacred space in Middle English literature and culture Laura Varnam,2018-01-11 This book presents an exciting new approach to the medieval church by examining the role of literary texts visual decorations ritual performance and lived experience in the production of sanctity The meaning of the church was intensely debated in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries This book explores what was at stake not only for the church s sanctity but for the identity of the parish community as a result Focusing on pastoral material used to teach the laity it shows how the church s status as a sacred space at the heart of the congregation was dangerously but profitably dependent on lay practice The sacred and profane were inextricably linked and paradoxically the church is shown to thrive on the sacrilegious challenge of lay misbehaviour and sin      The Four Modes of Seeing ElizabethCarson Pastan,2017-07-05 Borrowing its title from Madeline Harrison Caviness s influential work on the modes of seeing articulated by the twelfth century cleric Richard of Saint Victor this interdisciplinary collection brings
