Literature grade A language English abstract. Despite fateful situations at the end of the 20th century, postmodernist literature was developed. This type of literature deals more with the psychology of characters and also the readers reflect the bitter reality of the time and was more characterized by pessimism. If modernist writers at the end of the day see a light at the end of the tunnel, this did not happen with postmodernist writers. In this essay, I will make an analysis of the elements of this literature in one of Chinua Achebe's most famous works, Things Fall Apart. The African Trilogy Chinua Achebe, 2017-05-02 Chinua Achebe is considered the father of modern African literature, the writer who opened the magic casements of African fiction. The African Trilogy, comprised of Things Fall Apart, Arrow of God, and No Longer at Ease, is his magnum opus. In these masterly novels, Achebe brilliantly imagines the lives of three generations of an African community as their world is upended by the forces of colonialism, from the first arrival of the British to the waning days of empire. The trilogy opens with the groundbreaking Things Fall Apart, the tale of Okonkwo, a hero in his village whose clashes with missionaries, coupled with his own tragic pride, lead to his fall from grace. Arrow of God takes up the ongoing conflict between continuity and change as Ezeulu, the headstrong chief priest, finds his authority is under threat from rivals and colonial functionaries. But he believes himself to be untouchable and is determined to lead his people, even if it is towards their own destruction. Finally, in No Longer at Ease, Okonkwo's grandson, educated in England, returns to a civil service job in Lagos, only to see his morality erode as he clings to his membership in the ruling elite. Drawing on the traditional Igbo tales of Achebe's
