Thinking Chinese Translation Valerie Pellatt, Eric T. Liu, 2010-06-10. Thinking Chinese Translation is a practical and comprehensive course for advanced undergraduates and postgraduate students of Chinese. Thinking Chinese Translation explores the ways in which memory, general knowledge and creativity, summed up as schema, contribute to the linguistic ability necessary to create a good translation. The course develops the reader's ability to think deeply about the texts and to produce natural and accurate translations from Chinese into English. A wealth of relevant illustrative material is presented, taking the reader through a number of different genres and text types of increasing complexity, including technical, scientific and legal texts, journalistic and informative texts, literary and dramatic texts. Each chapter provides a discussion of the issues of a particular text type based on up-to-date scholarship, followed by practical translation exercises. The chapters can be read independently as research material or in combination with the exercises. The issues discussed range from the fine detail of the text, such as punctuation, to the broader context of editing, packaging and publishing translations. Major aspects of teaching and learning translation, such as collaboration, are also covered. Thinking Chinese Translation is essential reading for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students of Chinese and translation studies. The book will also appeal to a wide range of language students and tutors through the general discussion of the principles and purpose of translation.

Translating Asymmetry - Rewriting Power Ovidi Carbonell i Cortés, Esther Monzó-Nebot, 2021-08-15. The relevance of translation has never been greater. The challenges of the 21st century are truly global and societies are required to manage diversities like never before. Cultural and linguistic diversities cut across ideological systems, those carefully crafted to uphold prevailing hierarchies of power, making asymmetries inescapable. Translation and interpreting studies have left behind neutrality and have put forward challenging new approaches that provide a starting point for researching translation as a cultural and historical product in a global and asymmetrical world. This book addresses issues arising from the power vested in and arrogated by translation and interpreting, either as instruments of change or as tools to sustain dominant structures. It presents new perspectives and cutting edge research findings on how asymmetries are fashioned, woven, upheld, experienced, confronted, resisted and rewritten through and in translation. This volume is useful for scholars looking for tools to raise awareness as to the challenges posed by the pervasiveness of power relations in mediated communication. It will further help practitioners understand how asymmetries shape their experiences when translating and interpreting. Engineering Technology, Engineering Education and Engineering Management Deyao Tan, 2015-06-25. This volume contains papers

Gendering the Hadith Tradition Sofia Rehman, 2024-01-23 Gendering the ad th Tradition presents for the first time a partial translation and study of Imam Badr al Din al Zarkashi s work al Ijaba li Iradi ma Istadraktahu Aisha Ala al Sahabah The Corrective Aisha s Rectification of the Companions It critically analyses from the perspective of hadith criticism a number of sections presenting Aisha s refutations and corrections of key Companions including Umar b al Khattab Abdullah b Abbas Zayd b Thabit and Abu Hurayra applying classical hadith methodology to the scrutiny of narrators by way of impugment and validation al jarh wa al tadil in an effort to re construct and re present Aisha as a central authority in Islamic knowledge production This work constitutes a major rethinking of the Muslim hadith and jurisprudential traditions by evaluating how Aisha responded to hadiths that were circulating and being ascribed often incorrectly as authoritative statements of the Prophet Muhammad From her critique of overwhelmingly male Companions of the Prophet the study elicits a methodology for hadith criticism which is sure to challenge classical approaches Sofia Rehman unearths the scholarly acumen of this great female Companion and mother of the believers in her discussion of several legal positions which Aisha held in contradistinction to many of the male authorities among the Companions This interdisciplinary study serves as a model for how the voice of Aisha may be given renewed life and significance in the way it re centres her traditions and thinking A crucial aspect is its contributing to expanding the horizons of multiple Islamic disciplines A major contribution to the study of hadith lies in the development of an emergent methodology of Aisha in the scrutiny of the actual statements matn of traditions not just the chains of transmission isnad The contributions of this study to the development of the Muslim legal tradition fiqh also lies in a framework that emerges from this research based on the pattern of how Aisha approaches juridical matters The implications for this are many especially regarding women and their spiritual and daily life and practice
