Jay Wallace, 2018-02-06 Must we always later regret actions that were wrong for us to perform at the time Can there ever be good reason to affirm things in the past that we know were unfortunate In this original work of moral philosophy R Jay Wallace shows that the standpoint from which we look back on our lives is shaped by our present attachments to persons to the projects that imbue our lives with meaning and to life itself Through a distinctive affirmation dynamic these attachments commit us to affirming the necessary conditions of their objects The result is that we are sometimes unable to regret events and circumstances that were originally unjustified or otherwise somehow objectionable Wallace traces these themes through a range of examples A teenage girl makes an ill advised decision to conceive a child but her love for the child once it has been born makes it impossible for her to regret that earlier decision The painter Paul Gauguin abandons his family to pursue his true artistic calling and eventual life project in Tahiti which means he cannot truly regret his abdication of familial responsibility The View from Here offers new interpretations of these classic cases challenging their treatment by Bernard Williams and others Another example is the bourgeois predicament we are committed to affirming the regrettable social inequalities that make possible the expensive activities that give our lives meaning Generalizing from such situations Wallace defends the view that our attachments inevitably commit us to affirming historical conditions that we cannot regard as worthy of being affirmed a modest form of nihilism The View from Here Hannah McKinnon, 2020-06-02 From the acclaimed author of Sailing Lessons and Mystic Summer a charming gem of a novel Elin Hilderbrand 1 New York Times bestselling author an evocative and moving tale about what it means to be a family set over the course of one unforgettable Connecticut summer Siblings Perry Jake and Phoebe Goodwin were raised on the shore of a beautiful Connecticut lake in a close knit family The eldest of the family forty two year old Perry has long craved order as surely as his charismatic younger brother Jake has avoided it Phoebe their baby sister courts both As adults the Goodwin siblings could not be more different Perry is as married to his career in New York as a risk analyst as Phoebe is to her college sweetheart but both have returned to Connecticut to raise their young families Charismatic Jake however has spent his years living away wanderlust and unable to settle The three have not spent much time together until this summer On the afternoon of their grandmother's ninety seventh birthday party the siblings reunite at the lake house where Jake stuns the family with a stranger on his arm and an announcement Olivia Cossette daughter of a French chef does not share the traditional Goodwin New England upbringing or sense of family What she does share is parenthood as the single mother of a little girl who does not speak While the Goodwin
