Theatre World Daniel C. Blum,John

A. Willis, 2011 The War Against Naturalism in the Contemporary American Theatre Robert J. Andreach, 2008 The book applies playwright John Guare's statement that the war against naturalism is the history of the American theatre in the Twentieth Century to selected plays by important contemporary American playwrights Crucial to the argument is the recognition that a war presupposes two sides with neither side defeating the other for if naturalistic theatre were to win all theatre would be linear with characters circumscribed by their heredity and environment If non naturalistic theatre were to win all theatre would be a hodgepodge of incoherent images After isolating elements of a naturalistic play in its philosophical and mode of production sense the book examines plays that wage war in language and character The plays are all of the past few decades some by Foreman and Wellman are disorienting some by Albee Groff and Maxwell are controversial others by Eno and Corthron are by playwrights on the verge of major careers still others by Overmyer and Jenkin are drawing aspiring playwrights to them as models of new exciting writing for the theatre All of them whether colliding genres and styles or destabilizing meaning as in plays by Gibson and Long or reclaiming a mystery as in plays by Ludlam Greenberg and Donagy challenge naturalism's boundaries The book not only provides an approach to the contemporary American drama theatre but also brings together playwrights not perceived as having any connections other than the fact that they are creating plays today The text is appropriate for undergraduate students through professors and practitioners The Best Plays Theater Yearbook 2005-2006 Jeffrey Eric Jenkins, 2007-08 This annual chronicle of United States theater continues its long tradition of preserving the history of theater in the United States For this 87th edition essays by noted theater critics and writers celebrate the season and the ten best plays of 2005 2006 In addition to providing a variety of historical perspectives for the study and enjoyment of theater lovers Best Plays includes a compendium of facts and figures about the year in United States theater all illustrated with 100 black and white photographs The Advocate ,2003 American Theatre ,2006 Lighting Dimensions ,2004 The Spectator ,2003 New York ,2006 The Best Plays of ... ,2006 Writing American Theatre Wing, 2008-01-15 No Marketing Blurb
