Terrorism Detention Powers Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Home Affairs Committee, 2006-07-03 This report considers the police case for an increase in detention powers in respect of terrorism suspects in particular their support of 90 days pre charge detention It looks at the background both existing provisions changes in the Terrorism Act 2006 and the origins of the police case the terrorist threat whether its nature has changed and alternatives to longer detention and judicial oversight and detention periods Although the Committee can find no evidence to suggest that 90 days pre charge detention is essential they think that 28 days might prove to be inadequate Because of this they recommend the creation of a committee independent of Government which will review the pre charge detention period each year and make recommendations when necessary
