

The poster features three men's faces in a close-up, overlapping composition at the top. Below them, the names of the lead actors are listed in red. The title 'COOL WORLD' is in large, white, distressed block letters, with 'MEN IN JAIL' below it in a similar style. At the bottom, a silhouette of a man stands on a road at night, pointing towards a red car. A speed limit sign for 30 is visible on the right side.

The Cold July:

John le Carré and the Cold War Toby Manning, 2018-01-25 John le Carré and the Cold War explores the historical contexts and political implications of le Carré's major Cold War novels. The first in-depth study of le Carré this century, this book analyses his work in light of key topics in 20th-century history including containment of Communism, decolonization, the Berlin Wall, the Cuban missile crisis, the Cambridge spy ring, the Vietnam War, the 70s oil crisis, and Thatcherism. Examining The Spy Who Came in from the Cold (1963), Tinker Tailor Soldier Spy (1974), Smiley's People (1979), and other novels, this book offers an illuminating picture of Cold War Britain while situating le Carré's work alongside that of George Orwell, Graham Greene, and Ian Fleming. Providing a valuable contribution to contemporary understandings of both British spy fiction and post-war fiction, Toby Manning challenges the critical consensus to reveal a considerably less radical writer than is conventionally presented.

Congress and the Cold War Robert David Johnson, 2005-11-21 The first historical interpretation of the congressional response to the entire Cold War. Using a wide variety of sources including several manuscript collections opened specifically for this study, the book challenges the popular and scholarly image of a weak Cold War Congress in which the unbalanced relationship between the legislative and executive branches culminated in the escalation of the US commitment in Vietnam, which in turn paved the way for a congressional resurgence best symbolized by the passage of the War Powers Act in 1973. Instead, understanding the congressional response to the Cold War requires a more flexible conception of the congressional role in foreign policy, focused on three facets of legislative power: the use of spending measures, the internal workings of a Congress increasingly dominated by subcommittees, and the ability of individual legislators to affect foreign affairs by changing the way that policymakers and the public considered international questions. Mitterrand, the End of the Cold War, and German Unification Frédéric Bozo, 2009 This book explores the role of France in the events leading up to the end of the Cold War and German unification. From publisher description: The Intellectual repository for the New Church. (July/Sept. 1817). [Continued as] The Intellectual repository and New Jerusalem magazine. Enlarged ser., vol.1-28 New Church gen. confer, 1874. The Non-Aligned Movement and the Cold War Natasa Miskovic, Harald Fischer-Tiné, Nada Boskovska, 2014-04-16 The idea of non-alignment and peaceful coexistence was not new when Yugoslavia hosted the Belgrade Summit of the Non-Aligned in September 1961. Freedom activists from the colonies in Asia, Africa, and South America had been discussing such issues for decades already, but this long-lasting context is usually forgotten in political and historical assessments of the Non-Aligned Movement. This book puts the Non-Aligned Movement into its wider historical context and sheds light on the long-term connections and entanglements of the Afro-Asian world. It assembles scholars from differing fields of research such as Asian Studies, Eastern European and Southeast European History, Cold War Studies, Middle Eastern Studies, and International Relations. In doing so, this volume looks back to the ideological beginnings of the concept of peaceful coexistence at the time of the anticolonial movements and at the multi-faceted challenges of foreign policy the former freedom fighters faced when they established their own decolonized states It analyses the crucial role Yugoslav president Tito played in his determination to keep his country out of the blocs and finally examines the main achievement of the Non Aligned Movement to give subordinate states of formerly subaltern peoples a voice in the international system An innovative look at the Non Aligned Movement with a strong historical component the book will be of great interest to academics working in the field of International Affairs international history of the 20th century the Cold War Race Relations as well as scholars interested in Asian African and Eastern European history Encyclopedia of the Cold War Ruud van Dijk,William Glenn Gray,Svetlana Savranskaya,Jeremi Suri,Qiang Zhai,2013-05-13 Between 1945 and 1991 tension between the USA its allies and a group of nations led by the USSR dominated world politics This period was called the Cold War a conflict that stopped short to a full blown war Benefiting from the recent research of newly open archives the Encyclopedia of the Cold War discusses how this state of perpetual tensions arose developed and was resolved This work examines the military economic diplomatic and political evolution of the conflict as well as its impact on the different regions and cultures of the world Using a unique geopolitical approach that will present Russian perspectives and others the work covers all aspects of the Cold War from communism to nuclear escalation and from UFOs to red diaper babies highlighting its vast ranging and lasting impact on international relations as well as on daily life Although the work will focus on the 1945 1991 period it will explore the roots of the conflict starting with the formation of the Soviet state and its legacy to the present day The American Church Review Volume XLII July-December,1883 Whole Number 151 Rev.Henry Mason Baum,Edited By.,1883 Annual Report Michigan Dairymen's Association,1891 Cold Storage as an Aid to the Marketing of Plums Earle Long Overholser,1922 Louisiana Planter and Sugar Manufacturer ,1907 Cold Storage and Ice Trades Review ,1928 Scientific American ,1904 Ice and Refrigeration ,1912 Proceedings of the 1st- Annual Meeting, 1855- New York State Horticultural Society,1894 Refrigerating World Incorporating Cold Storage & Ice Trade Journal ,1914 Address Before the Alumni of Bowdoin College, July 8, 1873 Daniel Raynes Goodwin,1873 This is an EXACT reproduction of a book published before 1923 This IS NOT an OCR d book with strange characters introduced typographical errors and jumbled words This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book Report of the Agricultural Experiment Station of the University of California ,1929 Reports of Cases Heard and Determined in the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of the State of New York New York (State).
