The Complete Search Committee Guidebook Robert W. Dingman, 1989 The Search Committee Handbook

Theodore J. Marchese, Jane Fiori Lawrence, 2023-07-03 Reviews of the first edition Finally higher education has an intelligent guide for recruiting administrators an activity often taken for granted and not always thoughtfully carried out Paul A. Elsner Maricopa Community College District The book we've needed the Turabian of search James M. Heffernan State University of New York This Handbook focuses on administrative searches below the level of the presidency the searches for vice presidents deans directors and coordinators for which the appointment of a search committee is the norm It is written for practitioners for the institutional leaders who will plan the search form the committee and later make the appointment as well as for the chair and members of the search committee itself It is intended as a guide and a fund of ideas to promote better more informed and more effective practice The second edition of this acclaimed book reflects the extensive changes that have taken place in the hiring climate Video conferencing allows travel free interviewing The Web permits desktop research and has given rise to the online posting of openings Federal and state regulations about hiring and employment have grown apace The use of search firms has expanded from the presidency to other administrative posts The shift in student demographics is increasing the need for faculty staff diversity Perhaps the most significant change is the recent sharp decline in the size of applicant pools for administrative posts All these factors add up to a different and more challenging set of tasks for campus leadership and search committees To unpack these issues the Atlantic Philanthropies provided a grant to AAHE and the Academic Search Consultation Service to fund a national advisory board undertake extensive literature reviews and conduct focus groups and numerous interviews with committee chairs and others The new edition of this classic and authoritative source of advice for finding selecting and appointing the best people to key administrative positions is informed by this extensive research In Search of a Leader Robert W. Dingman, 1989

Search Committees Christopher D. Lee, 2023-07-03 Finding the right candidate for administrative professional and faculty positions is one of the most important tasks that any institution or enterprise undertakes However few higher education professionals receive training on the search committee process but are expected to serve on or lead committees This book provides advice training and a step by step guide for conducting a rigorous thorough search Following the expert model presented in this book will virtually guarantee successful searches This guide furthermore provides advanced diversity selection techniques that are not commonly found in many resources inside or outside of higher education and that have become institutional priorities in the context of demographic changes and globalization that require that higher education serve more diverse populations and compete internationally This guide covers the complete cycle of hiring starting with defining the position and forming and briefing the committee through cultivating a rich and diverse pool of candidates and screening and evaluating candidates to making the selection successfully completing the search successfully and welcoming
