Case 1.1

Reaching one Multi-Grade School

The school inspector is going to visit Thaba Limphe Primary School. He leaves his office at the District Headquarters by public bus, and travels into the mountains for four hours. When he descends from the bus, he can see the school on the mountain-side, but he still has to go a long distance. Fortunately, he finds a villager who is prepared to rent him a horse. He rides down to a river, which is low at this time of the year, so that he can cross without getting wet. Last year, some people were drowned on their way to the school. A flash flood occurred when they were crossing the river.

Climbing from the river, the inspector follows a track along a mountain ridge surrounded by cattle-posts and small fields. On the side of the mountains, he sees small homesteads of a few huts and trees. It is around 4 o'clock, and children are coming back from school. Some children have to walk more than one hour from school to their homes, where chores, such as milking the cows and fetching water, await them.

The inspector finally reaches the school building, which consists of three rooms. The teachers welcome him, and offer him some tea and biscuits from the school kitchen. The inspector will
