Through Laughter And Tears:

A Lifetime of Rhyme Margaret Bye, 2019-12-27 I've dabbled in poetry over the years I've written through laughter I've written through tears I like to tell the truth and base my poems on fact but I'm a sucker for a good story I don't let the truth get in the way of that I really like to have some fun with things my family and friends have done As you read my poetry I hope you'll think of me May you laugh and grin from ear to ear and on occasion shed a tear I have a sensitive side it's true and on occasion this shows through but humour is the spice of life and laughter keeps us young So laugh at life with me and mine I promise lots of fun
