Through Violet Eyes:

Through Violet Eyes Stephen Woodworth, 2004-08-31 A fast smart novel brighter than a meteor and twice as scary Stephen Woodworth provides shocks and thoughts in equal measure and climbs right to the top Greg Bear In a world where the dead can testify against the living someone is getting away with murder Because to every generation are born a select few souls with violet colored eyes and the ability to channel the dead Both rare and precious and rigidly controlled by a society that craves their services these Violets perform a number of different duties The most fortunate increase the world's cultural heritage by channeling the still creative spirits of famous dead artists and musicians The least fortunate aid the police and the law courts catching criminals by interviewing the deceased victims of violent crime But now the Violets themselves have become the target of a brutal serial murderer a murderer who had learned how to mask his or her identity even from the victims Can the FBI aided by a Violet so scared of death that she is afraid to live uncover the criminal in time Or must more of her race be dispatched to the realm that has haunted them all since childhood Praise for Through Violet Eyes Chilling shades of Minority Report and The Eyes of Laura Mars tantalizing puzzle rife with red herrings one made all the more entertaining by brisk pacing and strong internal logic Publishers Weekly a Wow one cool idea and Stephen Woodworth makes it work like fine oiled machinery Full of energy and suspense Through Violet Eyes is a great and original first novel I look forward to his next Joe R Lansdale An eerie and compelling page turner that maps the terra incognita between the living and the dead loss and redemption desire and grief at the same time exploring what it means to be human in a frightening otherworld that too closely evokes our own reality Elizabeth Hand

Through Violet Eyes Stephen Woodworth, 2012-03-01 In a world where the dead can testify against the living someone is getting away with murder To every generation a select few souls are born with violet coloured eyes and the ability to channel the dead Both rare and precious and rigidly controlled by a society that craves their services these Violets perform a number of different social duties But now the Violets themselves have become the target of a brutal serial murderer a murderer who has learned how to mask his or her identity even from the victims Can FBI agent Dan Atwater aided by Violet Natalie Lindstrom uncover the criminal in time Or will more of Natalie's race be dispatched to the realm that has haunted them all since childhood

With Red Hands Stephen Woodworth, 2004-12-28 Natalie Lindstrom was once one of an elite group of investigators with the power to interview the dead victims of violent crime But now Natalie has had enough Enough of the violence Enough of the darkness that has already gotten too close to her five year old daughter Yet as she tries to build a new life and protect her child from the world she has left Natalie still knows injustice when she sees it And she knows that in a high profile California trial a young man is getting away with murder The case against Prescott Hyland Jr is airtight until a corrupt Violet delivers devastating testimony against another man Now Natalie is being drawn back into her former career and a danger far worse than she can imagine For while one killer is being tried in a courtroom another has gone horribly free to unleash a storm of vengeance aimed straight for the heart of Natalie's new life. Because in the world of the Violets sometimes your past can literally come back to haunt you. From Black Rooms Stephen Woodworth, 2006-10-31 Natalie Lindstrom has finally left the underworld behind for a new career in the art world. But there's one world she can't escape: the Other world of the dead. As a former Violet, an elite crime fighter with the power to channel murder victims, Natalie is now using her paranormal gift to summon the spirits of legendary painters. But she's about to discover how far some people will go to keep their hold on her and others like her. Evan Markham, her ex-lover turned Violet Killer, has escaped from prison. And he's been made an offer he can't refuse: Natalie. But first he must help contact a deceased geneticist whose most intriguing experiment was brutally interrupted: an attempt to manufacture Violets. To protect her young daughter and herself, Natalie must search for the scientist's only living test subject: a handsome but tortured artist to whom she is dangerously attracted. For he is caught in the grip of two opposing forces: one that wants his survival, another that wants him and anyone connected with him destroyed.

In Golden Blood Stephen Woodworth, 2005-10-25 Natalie Lindstrom has a gift: the power to speak to the dead to solve crimes by interviewing murder victims. But now Natalie wants to escape. Escape from the voices that fill her head. Escape from the organization that has used her as a crime-solving tool and now wants to recruit her daughter. So Natalie takes a job as far from crime and punishment as she can get: with an archaeologist in the mountains of Peru. Her job: to find a trove of priceless artifacts by channeling those who lived and died at an ancient Incan site. But in the towering Andes, Natalie enters a 500-year-old storm of betrayal, murder, greed, and rage, and she cannot silence the voices of the dead. The slaughtered reach out to her. The slaughterers boast of their crimes. Alone, cut off from her family, Natalie faces a chilling realization: every truth she uncovers is leading her one step closer to a terror beyond imagining. Footsteps of the Gods and Other Poems
