Monuments to Heaven Lois Zanow,Sally Johnston,2010 This book is the only one that describes exclusively the architecture history and art associated with 23 of Baltimore s churches and synagogues dating from 1785 to 1887 Within these houses of worship designed by leading architects of the day are outstanding examples of windows statuary paintings mosaics carvings and religious artifacts Robert Cary Long Jr Benjamin LaTrobe and Stanford White are a few of the architects Louis Comfort Tiffany John LaFarge Constantine Brumidi and Hans Schuler represent some of the artisans A majority of the buildings are National Historic Landmarks or are on the national Register of Historic Places Churches parallel the development of the city The book tells why each church or synagogue was founded the particular ethnic or social group it served and how it adapted over the years to Baltimore s changing demographics Each building has a special story to tell Only those religious structures which still have active congregations or are used for religious ceremonies are included These buildings are city treasures in terms of their history architecture and artisans contributions to the interiors The structures are concentrated in downtown Baltimore and include a variety of neighborhoods The book can be used as a guide to explore these Baltimore gems

Beyond the Easel Gloria Lynn Groom,Nicholas Watkins,Jennifer Paoletti,Thérèse Barruel,Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2001-01-01 The Contributions of Artists Pierre Bonnard Edouard Vuillard Maurice Denis and Ker Xavier Roussel to the French avant garde of the 1890s as members of the Nabis are widely recognized What is less known about these artists careers is their extraordinary work in decorative painting work on a large or unusual scale for private interiors This illustrated book focuses on the many decorative works carried out by the four artists between 1890 and 1930 During these years they moved beyond the narrow parameters of easel painting and applied their wholly untraditional aesthetic of decoration to a wide range of works for domestic interiors from wall size ensembles to folding screens The cosmopolitan group of patrons who made this work possible ranged from the avant garde circle of La Revue Blanche to prominent members of the French establishment An examination of their role and tastes is another fascinating feature of this publication The book and accompanying exhibition reunite paintings that have long been dispersed introducing contemporary viewers to a group of bold and evocative works which had a wide ranging though little recognized influence on modern art As the book s authors argue the aesthetic embodied by these works indeed helped set the stage for the large non narrative paintings by artists as diverse as Rothko and Lichtenstein that came to dominate the avant garde after World War II BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
