Suzhou in Transition Beibei Tang, Paul Cheung, 2020-11-11 Through the lens of the city of Suzhou this edited volume presents views on the complex interaction between the central state market agents local governments and individuals who have shaped the development of Chinese cities and urban life Featuring a range of disciplinary perspectives contributors to this volume have all undertaken research in one municipality Suzhou to consider how history and culture have evolved during the modernisation of Chinese cities and the transformation of urban space as well as shifting rural urban relations and urban life during the reform era The volume is underscored by a complex dynamic system consisting of three interlocked mechanisms through which the central and local state interact history and culture social and economic life and administration and governance As such chapters analyse responses both from the state and society as driving forces of local development with an interplay between tradition and heritage on the one hand and China s economic and social development on the other Suzhou in Transition will appeal to students and scholars of

Chinese and urban studies as well as urban sociology and geography Flock Book New Zealand Romney Marsh Sheep Breeders' Association,1962 Geo-Narratives of a Filial Son Elizabeth Kindall,2020-05-11 Huang Xiangjian a mid seventeenth century member of the Suzhou local elite journeyed on foot to southwest China and recorded its sublime scenery in site specific paintings Elizabeth Kindall s innovative analysis of the visual experiences and social functions Huang conveyed through his oeuvre reveals an unrecognized tradition of site paintings here labeled geo narratives that recount specific journeys and create meaning in the paintings Kindall shows how Huang created these geo narratives by drawing upon the Suzhou place painting tradition as well as the encoded experiences of southwestern sites discussed in historical gazetteers and personal travel records and the geography of the sites themselves Ultimately these works were intended to create personas and fulfill specific social purposes among the educated class during the Ming Qing transition Some of Huang s paintings of the southwest together with his travel records became part of a campaign to attain the socially generated title of Filial Son whereas others served private functions This definitive study elucidates the context for Huang Xiangjian s painting and identifies geo narrative as a distinct landscape painting tradition lauded for its naturalistic immediacy experiential topography and dramatic narratives of moral persuasion class identification and biographical commemoration

Appendix to the Journals of the House of Representatives of New Zealand New Zealand. Parliament. House of Representatives,1871 Touring China Yajun Mo,2021-12-15 In Touring China Yajun Mo explores how early twentieth century Chinese sightseers described the destinations that they visited and how their travel accounts gave Chinese readers a means to imagine their vast country The roots of China s tourism market stretch back over a hundred years when railroad and steamship networks expanded into the coastal regions Tourism related businesses and publications flourished in urban centers while scientific exploration investigative journalism and wartime travel propelled many Chinese from the eastern seaboard to its peripheries Mo considers not only accounts of overseas travel and voyages across borderlands but also trips within China On the one hand via travel and travel writing the unity of China s coastal regions inland provinces and western frontiers was experienced and reinforced On the other travel literature revealed a persistent tension between the aspiration for national unity and the anxiety that China might fall apart Touring China tells a fascinating story about the physical and intellectual routes people took on various journeys against the backdrop of the transition from Chinese empire to nation state
